In Convention

State Republicans Seek Party Unity

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Missouri Republicans sought a unity formula today as they met in state convention to pick the last four delegates at large to the national convention in San Francisco next month.

The 24-vote delegation already is heavily pro-Goldwater. An Associated Press poll earlier this week showed 17 district delegates committed or leaning toward the Arizona senator and three others uncommitted.

Erhard In Washington For Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany flew into Washington today to review the German and Berlin problems with President Johnson in the light of the Soviet-East German friendship pact announced in Moscow earlier today.

Erhard declined immediate comment on the pact, saying "I must see the text first. I cannot make a political comment knowing only what the headlines say."

Responding to the welcome extended at Andrews Air Force Base by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, Erhard said of his upcoming talks with Johnson:

"We have no concrete decisions to make, but it is opportunity to draw a balance and coordinate our positions."

Also on hand at the airport was German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder who arrived Thursday and had two meetings with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

German diplomatic sources said that, contrary to some reports, the two foreign ministers did not come to any decision on what steps the two countries should take next.

Specifically, these sources said, there was no agreement on a joint U.S.-German appeal for a four-power conference on the German-Berlin issues.

This was one of the points raised at the Rusk-Schröder meeting, one authoritative source said, but explained it was simply revival of the long-standing German proposal to have a permanent group, probably on the deputy foreign minister level, to review the issues.

UPI Joins Others In Election Pool

NEW YORK (AP) — United Press International has joined the three major television-radio networks and The Associated Press to pool the collection of vote returns in the presidential, senatorial and gubernatorial elections next November.

The AP, and the National Broadcasting Co., Columbia Broadcasting System and the American Broadcasting Co. will participate in the newly organized Network Election Service.

The service was established earlier this week to combine the news resources of the three networks and The AP in reporting the returns in the top elections.

Goldwater supporters, however, claimed they had 18 of the district votes.

Two more Goldwater backers, state GOP Chairman Lem T. Jones of Kansas City and Rep. Durward Hall of Springfield, were regarded as likely winners of two of the at-large spots.

Two different slates were being put forward for the other two at-large choices.

One included James W. Jeans of St. Louis County, chairman of the Greater St. Louis Goldwater for Presidents club, and Spencer Olin of St. Louis, former GOP national finance chairman.

The other slate had the honors going to Francis Corley of St. Louis, retiring national committeewoman, and Mrs. Anne McElhiney of Brookfield, state vice chairman.

Two former state chairmen—State Sen. James P. Kelly of Trenton and Kenneth Wangelin of Poplar Bluff—said they were not running.

Another fight was brewing over the choice of a new national committeewoman.

Former U. S. Rep. Walter C. Ploeser of St. Louis County claimed an edge in that contest. But supporters of Levi Lowry, Princeton lumber man, disputed the claim.

The Republican National Committeewoman, Mrs. Stanley Ginn of Columbia is opposed for re-election.

The Goldwater tinge of the convention was emphasized by the keynote speech of U. S. Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of Webster Groves, a district delegate to the national convention.

Meat Tastes Different In Europe, US

European tastes in meat differ widely from American preferences as a visit of two French meat buyers to Kansas City pointed up this week, and farm leaders here see the difference as a potential market for Missouri beef.

Olen Monsees, Smithton, president of the Missouri Farm Bureau, was among farm leaders instrumental in bringing the French buyers to Missouri and the idea of producing beef for the export market appeals to him.

Touring Kansas City packing plants, the French buyers pointed out lean beef as contrasted to the finely "marbled" meat that is desired in the U.S. Grades they chose included mostly "standard" and "low good" meats.

The French buyers hope to get the beef they want in the U.S. not all at once, but by continuing orders.

One reason noted in the French preference for leaner meat is the difference in percentage of income paid for food. The French lay out 40 per cent of their income for food while in the U.S. the figure is 20 per cent. For this reason they don't want to pay for highly finished beef.

Explosion Kills Four, Injures 112

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Explosions rocked military ammunition dumps across the Ozama River from Santo Domingo through the night.

Officials said four persons were killed and 112 wounded.

Flames set by the blasts still raged today, preventing firemen, troops and police from getting close to the dumps.

The explosions caused damage in the city.

Donald Reid Cabral of the government junta said three and possibly five dumps at the army's 27th of February barracks were destroyed. He said investigators were trying to determine the cause. There was an unofficial report the blasts were started by fire in a powder magazine.

Persons in the area heard several carbine shots just before the first explosion. It was believed these were fired by sentries giving the alarm for the fire.

The government put all hospitals and private clinics in the capital on an emergency footing.

U.S. Ambassador William Bennett visited the government house and it was understood he offered help in relief work.

Col. Luther Long, the U.S. Army attache in Santo Domingo, said the number of dead and wounded was "sizeable" but he could not say how many there were.

Col. Long said there were four ammunition dumps in the area and that two had gone up. The explosions and fire continued early today, and Long said it was possible the other dumps also would explode.

Favor Bonuses For Certain Veterans

SIKESTON, Mo. (AP)—The Henry M. Aldrich American Legion Post has adopted a resolution calling for payments of bonuses to veterans of World War II and the Korean conflict.

The post agreed to present a proposal to the next general assembly of the legislature. It calls for payment of $10 per month for domestic service and $15 per month for overseas duty.

The post elected Col. George A. Johnson, USA (Ret.) commander at Thursday night's meeting.

Fatter Pay Checks For US Workers

House Passes Pay Raise To Include All Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fatter pay checks for most federal workers were in prospect today after House passage of a pay raise bill that includes $7,500-a-year increases for members of Congress.

By the surprisingly large margin of 243 to 157 the House reversed its earlier defeat of a similar bill and cleared the way for Senate action on the $533-million package of pay boosts.

It includes $7,500-a-year raises for judges, Cabinet officers and top federal executives, and increases ranging from 22.5 per cent at the top to 1.6 per cent at the bottom for 1.7 million government workers.

The average letter carrier would get a 5.6 per cent boost of $325 a year and the average government typist and file clerk would get a $310 a year raise.

The bill is expected to be one of the first called up in the Senate after it completes action on the civil rights bill, and no difficulties are foreseen in its passage.

A number of considerations prompted the House to pass the pay bill this time after defeating one, 222 to 184, last March.

Moves King To Another Town Today

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., jailed for trying to integrate a restaurant, was moved to an undisclosed town today because of threats on his life, Sheriff L.O. Davis said.

The sheriff said King was taken away from the St. Johns County jail during the night. He would not say where the integration leader was being held.

"We had to take him out for his own protection," Davis said. "We may bring him back later today. We've had some threats on his life, and I don't want my jail destroyed."

Seventeen other persons arrested with King Thursday remained in the jail.

Firm law enforcement methods kept order Thursday night as integrationists made their third straight night march through downtown streets.

With their leader, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. of Atlanta, in jail as the result of a sit-in, the numbers of demonstrators Thursday night were about 200—half that of previous nights when they were attacked by gangs of 100 or so whites in a downtown plaza.

White men and youths who broke police lines to attack integrationists on earlier marches were held outside the demonstration area.

Russia, East Germany Sign Important Friendship Pact

Avoids Crisis With West By Avoiding Peace Treaty

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union and East Germany signed a friendship treaty today but avoided stirring up a major crisis with the West by stopping short of a World War II peace treaty.

Premier Khrushchev said the treaty would be an important contribution to "the peaceful regulation of the German question."

US Flights Over Laos To Resume

Important Moves By Communists Have Been Noted

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Souvanna Phouma said today that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Central Laos will resume in the next day or two because "important movements" of Communist forces are under way there.

The flights were suspended Wednesday at Souvanna's request.

"Unfortunately," the premier told a news conference, "recent information reaching us shows that important movements of Pathet Lao and Vietminh troops are taking place in these (Communist-controlled) zones."

"The flights will therefore be continued and if the Pathet Lao want them to stop it is up to them to create the necessary conditions."

Souvanna said he has no objection to armed American fighter escorts for the reconnaissance planes. He said Laos itself has no means to protect the flights.

Previously it had been believed that the violent objections from the Pathet Lao and Communist China to the flights, and particularly to the use of armed American escorts, had been a big factor in Souvanna's request that the flights be suspended.

But the premier said today, as he had Thursday, that he requested their suspension because there had been a "lull in the operational zone."

Souvanna made no mention of an air strike Thursday on Pathet Lao headquarters in Khang Khay reported by Red China's New China news agency.

The agency said six U.S.-made AT6 and T28 planes of World War II vintage dropped six bombs and made strafing runs over the Pathet Lao center in the Plaine des Jarres.

Such lanes are flown by the Royal Lao Air Force and are based at Savannakhet, in Southern Laos, under the control of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, the right-wing Laotian leader.

A Pathet Lao statement quoted by the news agency did not identify the nationality of the planes but blamed the attack on "U.S. imperialism and its lackeys."

His announcement to the pact appeared couched in cautious terms.

But East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht, following the Soviet leader on the dais at a Kremlin meeting, said the treaty provides that East Germany and the Soviet Union will regard isolated West Berlin as "an independent political entity which in no way is part of the West German Federal Republic and to which the competence of the West German Federal Republic does not extend."

Ulbricht had argued for a peace treaty. Speaking prior to the signing, he said: "There is no other way of insuring peace now than by normalizing relations between the two German states, disarmament, and the signing of a peace treaty by the victor powers and the governments of the two German states."

The West German government refuses to talk with Ulbricht's regime and the major Western Allies of World War II decline to recognize it.

In Washington, London and Paris statements were issued before the treaty was signed saying the Western governments would continue to hold Moscow responsible for East Germany.

The statements were in response to Soviet advance warnings of the treaty, which apparently were given to avoid touching off a crisis through misunderstanding on what it contains.

Discard Hope Of Winning Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern foes of the civil rights bill have virtually abandoned hope of winning adoption of any additional amendments of consequence.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Dixie forces, said today that the bill's supporters evidently are not going to take any more amendments.

This was confirmed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., the bill's floor manager. He said in a separate interview that there might be some technical changes but nothing of substance.

"I don't think we have much chance on any of our amendments," Russell said, but he added that the Southerners will continue to offer them to put the Senate on record, even if they get only 20 to 30 votes.

"This is bad legislation, and we are going to give those who are pressing this cup to our lips a chance to make a record," said Russell.

To 'Offer Choice'

Scranton To Run For Nomination

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania today announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination "to offer our party a choice."

The 46-year-old governor and former congressman has been saying for almost a year that he would accept only a "sincere and honest draft."

In an 11th-hour speech arranged only Thursday night for the Republican State Convention of Maryland, Scranton declared the Republican party "is in danger if we let an exclusion-minded minority dominate our platform and choose our candidates."

"I have come here to offer our party a choice. I reject the echo we have thus far been handed, the echo of fear, or reaction, the echo from the never-never land that puts our nation backward to a lesser place in the world of free men," he said.

Scranton's announcement puts him in direct opposition to Sen. Barry Goldwater, considered by many political experts to have the GOP nomination virtually sewed up.

The Pennsylvania governor joins a field of candidates including Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen.

Scranton's speech ran 20 minutes.

"Can we in good conscience turn our backs on the century-old progressive history of our party?" Scranton asked.

"You and I know we cannot. I believe that as members of a party more than 100 years old we have no right to sell out to the modern expediencies of the easy answer, the fast draw, the quick solution."

Scranton said the party he represents was born in troubled times.

"I say that the true spirit of the Republican party today stands equally dedicated to preserving this nation from the dry-rot of phony liberalism or the slow death of blind reaction," he said.

Scranton took note of what he termed a pretension of some that the choice of a candidate has already been made before the convention in San Francisco.

Airman Shot By Unknown Man In Park

An unidentified gunman fired three shots at an airman and his date in Knob Noster Park near Clearfork lake before midnight Thursday, wounding the airman twice. The third bullet was not accounted for, according to authorities.

The wounded airman was identified as A/3C Richard Dixon, 18, of the CDS at Whiteman Air Force Base, who was reported to have suffered a wound in the side and a graze wound to his right leg. His companion, a young girl, also of Whiteman, was not wounded.

The girl's name was withheld by authorities.

Officials said the youth and girl were standing beside his car when the gunman stepped from behind a tree and fired three times at them. The girl got her companion back into his car and sped out of the park to the main gate at the Air Force base where Air Police

Walker Tells Of Appeals For Support

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Edwin Walker testified Thursday he made several appeals for public support shortly before he appeared on the University of Mississippi campus during a night-long integration riot.

Walker returns to the stand today for continuation of cross examination in the trial of his $2-million libel suit against The Associated Press.

The former Army major general contends in his suit that AP accounts of the Ole Miss rioting falsely represented him as leading a student charge against U. S. marshals. The Associated Press, which will present its evidence following Walker's witness, says its accounts were fair and accurate reports.

"Bring your flag, your tent and skillet," said Walker in a special film shown to the jury during cross examination Thursday. J. A. Gooch, an Associated Press attorney, presented evidence that the film was part of a Dallas news conference on Sept. 27, four days before the riot.

"I guess it's an original phrase as far as I am concerned," Walker said. "I meant they would need some place to stay and something to eat."

High School Grads Hosted By President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson heaped praise, lavished the hospitality of the White House and gathered an array of famous Americans to honor 121 high school graduates picked for intellectual attainment as the nation's first "presidential scholars."

No money went with the award. But the five hours these youngsters spent in the White House Wednesday evening was historic and unforgettable.

They met the President and his family in formal and informal mood. They wandered through the stately rooms of the White House and got a look at the Johnsons' pet beagles.

And, they mingled with such famous personalities as actress Helen Hayes, poet Ogden Nash, choreographer George Balanchine, physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer, astronaut Navy Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., and novelist Harper Lee.

Before the party was over, Johnson and wife came down from seats on the Truman balcony to stretch out on the cool grass of the south lawn to watch the Kingston Trio in the final act of an evening outdoor show put on for the scholars.

Not many of the students saw the President as he relaxed because it was dark and they were watching the show. But, they crowded around him later when he came forward to tell them "I'm going to bed tonight knowing that the country is stronger and in safe hands as long as we have people like you students."

The President's older daughter, Lynda, 20, presided at an outdoor hamburger dinner, served on paper plates under the trees where Caroline Kennedy's play school used to be. And, while they ate, the scholars gathered to chat with composer-pianist Leonard Bernstein, actors Sidney Poitier and Jose Ferrer, the Gerry Mulligan Quartet, Metropolitan Opera tenor Nicholas di Virgilio and

Wife-Waiting Lamented As An Ordeal for Wedded Man

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals for every husband is wife-waiting.

Earning a living for a wife, a fellow finds out, is one of the easier things about marriage. It takes only about eight hours a day.

This leaves a man 16 full hours for wife-waiting and other such essential chores as sleeping, shaving, eating, walking the dog and obeying his children.

There are several kinds of wife-waiting, but they break down into four general classes: Waiting for her to make up her mind, get to the point, to shut up after she does get to the point, and to get dressed so you can go somewhere together.

Getting ready is no problem to him. All he has to do is wash his face, put on a clean shirt, look in a mirror and say, "Oh, you handsome man, making devil, you." Then he could be off at a gallop—if it weren't for that little problem of waiting for his wife.

Wives are a terrible lot of trouble to themselves. They never have anything to wear, they claim, but they always manage to summon up a different wardrobe for every possible function.

Whatever the occasion, she has to outfit herself in a different manner. While she is putting on this, taking off that, then changing into something else, her husband is fuming himself into a state of high blood pressure.

Some husbands try to do something about it. "Why does it always take you so long to get dressed?" they demand peevishly. Then their own ears are bent for the next few hours.

No husband can point out a wife's fault to her without learning immediately of 612 major defects in his own character, some of which he never suspected.

Still other husbands try to improve themselves in some way while waiting for their wives. They take up hobbies, read long books or go next door and hold hands with a neighbor's wife.

One fellow took a correspondence course in ventriloquism during the long hours he had to spend while waiting for his wife to get dressed. He became quite expert at bird calls. He was accidentally shot during the quail season while imitating a bob white.

The most sensible attitude a husband can adopt toward wife-waiting is one of philosophic acceptance.

The problem of wife-waiting is pretty much like the problem of erosion: There isn't much any one man can do about it in his lifetime.

You begin to grow up in this world when you realize that some things can't be cured—they must be endured.

HIS THIRD CADILLAC...HIS FIRST NEW ONE

This man is enjoying his first brand-new Cadillac—after becoming acquainted with the car's unsurpassed value by twice buying used Cadillacs.

He learned that a late model used Cadillac gave him more standard equipment and engineering advancements than most new cars.

First of all, while Cadillac's styling was continually refined, it never lost the clean, dignified look that says Cadillac and Cadillac alone. The smooth, quiet performance and complete reliability of his used Cadillac was a constant source of enjoyment. Then, too, he and his family enjoyed luxury and comfort to a degree reserved exclusively for Cadillac owners.

The pride of ownership of so distinctive a car was a never-ending pleasure, for he had the satisfaction—always—of knowing he drove the finest.

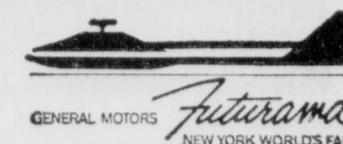

When it came time to trade his previously owned Cadillac for a later model, he found its value had held remarkably high...and returned a substantial part of his original investment.

So what could be more natural—or wise—than to make the eventual move to a new Cadillac?

New or used, there is no finer motoring investment than a Cadillac. And new or used, your authorized dealer has one to fit any budget. There's never been a better time to invest in the finest of them all.

He underwent immediate surgery at the base hospital and early Friday morning his condition was reported as satisfactory.

As soon as the Air Police learned of the incident they notified the Knob Noster police station, and one of their cars was immediately dispatched to the park area and Johnson County Sheriff William Fortney notified of the shooting.

The sheriff summoned other deputies of his department and several Missouri State Highway Patrol troopers who hurried to the area and set up roadblocks in case the man might not have made his escape from the park area.

Police dogs were summoned from Lee's Summit and were used for a time, but efforts to follow a bonafide trail were fruitless. The search for the man in the park was abandoned early Friday morning.

Officials obtained a vague description of the man, he was believed to be in his early 40's, wearing a maroon or dark colored shirt, light colored trousers and had black or dark hair.

Lt. Gilbert Knier of the base information office said no report was immediately available as to what size gun or type was used by the assailant. Knier said Friday that the one bullet which passed through Dixon's side had lodged near his spine and could not be removed until the airman's condition strengthened.

Sheriff William Fortney and deputies were continuing their investigation Friday and at midday Fortney was at the base.

Police Reports

A 15-year-old boy, said to have been the driver of an automobile which went through a fence at 24th and Ohio, when questioned about the incident before his father, agreed to return to the scene in the next few days and make the necessary repairs to the fence. The accident occurred late Tuesday night.

The boy, it was reported, claimed to be under parole from a boy's institution in Arizona. The case was turned over to Cecil Glenn, juvenile officer, who said the boy agreed to fix the fence.

According to reports the car was being followed by a police car with Officer Clyde Nicewarner, who had a red light on trying to stop the vehicle, but he was considerable distance back. No sooner had the car gone through the fence than the juveniles in the car scattered and eluded the officer. The car had gone considerable distance into a field, away from the roadway, and Nicewarner stopped on the road. They disappeared before he could get down in the field where the car stopped.

The boy and several other juveniles were "rounded up" Wednesday and questioned by the police and Glenn about the incident.

F. D. Johnson, brought a brown billfold to police station Thursday. Identification available in the billfold indicated that it was the property of Johnny Lee Fultz, Springfield.

A 12-year-old boy, Ralph Burgess, 1305 East Ninth, was reported to Sedalia Police and the Pettis County Sheriff's office as missing late Thursday. At present time his whereabouts had not been ascertained.

When last seen, the boy was wearing a red pullover shirt, blue jeans and black tennis shoes. He has brown hair and eyes and is of a stocky build.

It was indicated that the youth had an older sister in St. Louis and that he might possibly have left Sedalia for that area.

Donald Salmons, 312 East 26th, reported the loss of a tan billfold Thursday night in the vicinity of Duffy's Tavern in the 1500 block of South Ohio.

Police reported Friday morning a newspaper rack had been stolen from the Publix Food Barn, Seventh and Engineer.

Patrolmen William Raines and Herbert Mayfield discovered an attempted break-in to a rear door of State Fair Grocery, 16th and Beacon, at 5:10 a. m. Friday.

Ann Landers Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I was fascinated by the letter signed "Not Mad," because my husband used to hit me while he was sleeping, too. I made excuses for Bud, just as "Not Mad" made excuses for her husband. I didn't want to face the truth, which was simply that Bud really wanted to hit me during the day but didn't have the nerve.

After innumerable black eyes and nose bleeds I decided I'd had enough. It was the night of our anniversary and he had forgotten. I didn't say a word but when a bouquet of flowers from our daughter and son-in-law arrived, Bud was embarrassed and apologetic.

He would have felt better had

I lit into him, but I remained silent and pleasant. This he could not tolerate. I was certain that he would hit me that night "in his sleep."

Sure enough, about 2 a. m. I was awakened by a crack on the head. I sat bolt upright, made a dandy fist of my own and delivered an uppercut to his jaw. I have never seen such a surprised look on anyone's face in all my life. P.S. He has not hit me in his sleep since and it has been 5 years. — PEACE IT'S WONDERFUL.

Dear Wonderful: Peace is more than the absence of war. I hope you have really found it.

Dear Ann Landers: Quite by accident I learned that my 20-year-old daughter is on very intimate terms with her steady boy friend, Jack.

Janice does not know that I am aware of this and there is no way to tell her without betraying a confidence. In the meantime I've been worried to death that they might get into trouble.

Last weekend I heard Janice talking to a girl friend. She referred to Jack as "that jerk." I was shocked. Later I asked Janice if she and Jack were having trouble. She replied, "Yes, all kinds. I'm trying to dump him and he is fighting it."

I'm so upset, Ann, I don't know what to do. The only thing that has kept me from going crazy was the thought that these two would eventually get married. Should I have a talk with Janice?—DISTRAUGHT MOTHER.

Dear Mother: And what would you talk about? Would you tell her she'd better marry Jack, even though she thinks he is a jerk?

If you can, work a conversation around to the dangers and disadvantages of sex outside of marriage. She made one mistake. Don't encourage her to make another.

Dear Ann Landers: This gripe has been bugging me for ages.

The problem isn't mine but I work in a store and I deal with it every day. What do you think of people who return gifts and insist of getting the money. No amount of talking can persuade these cheapskates to take something else. I see nothing wrong if people want to exchange a gift in case of duplication, or because the color isn't appropriate, but to cash in a gift that a friend or relative selected with great care seems like an insult to the giver.

Do you agree, or do I have a fix on this one?—Gr—rrr.

Dear Gr—rrr: I agree, and if it's a fix, then I have it, too. In my opinion it is poor manners to return a gift and insist on the cash. Some stores do not allow this practice and I'm with them.

Officers of the new club are, Harry A. Goldberg, president; John Ellison, first vice-president; Alexander "Bill" Goldberg, second vice-president; Victor Goering, secretary; Don Anderson, treasurer; Gilbert Adkins, Lion Tamer; and Clifford Dickey, Tail Twister. ## Old 'Copters Replaced By New Models

By PETER ARNETT
TAN HIEP, South Viet Nam (AP)—A shattering roar exploded down the line of long, cylindrical machines stretched across the airfield.

Smoke and fire belched from the exhaust of one bearing the name "Taxpayers Regret." Vietnamese soldiers jogged toward them, but one hesitated perceptibly before approaching the green monster spluttering and shaking ahead of him.

Then he plunged into it. It was the noisy beginning of another combat assault for the "Shaggy Shawnees," the banana-shaped H21 helicopters that brought helicopter war to Viet Nam.

Since their arrival in December 1961, they have been called many names, most of them bad.

Now their days are ending here.

With the last of them leaving this week, some of the pilots are having second thoughts.

"You fall in love with these old dogs because it takes so much pilot technique to keep them in the air," said one American flier who wrestled with H21s for eight months.

Another observed: "When you have flown one of these babies you have flown everything."

The role of the ungainly H21 has been taken over by the UH1B, known as the Huey. These slim, mosquito-like helicopters are more agile.

The H21 was never designed for the tough work it had to do in Viet Nam. But it won the grudging respect of relays of U.S. Army pilots who flew it on combat assaults and supply missions with the Vietnamese army.

"She's old and slow and they were writing her off as obsolete a couple of years ago, but you could fill her up till she was bursting and still get her off the ground," one pilot said.

This advantage was demonstrated last week when an H21 moved 48 refugee women and children in one lift.

Officers in the 120th Aviation Co.—oldest helicopter company in Viet Nam—said recently 22 hours of maintenance was needed to fly one hour.

But the officers admitted that the ship was under heavy punishment all the time.

Want Cut in Rates For Grain Gathering

CHICAGO (AP)—Reductions on gathering rates of grain shipped through Kansas City and other Missouri River terminals is to be sought by Western and southwestern railroads.

Gathering rates are those on grain hauled from rural loading docks to the primary switching yards. The cut was first proposed and pushed by the Santa Fe. The railroads are expected to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to reduce rates by 10 cents per hundred pounds.

Present rates differ from railroad to railroad. Minimum rate under the standardized proposal would be a charge of 11½ cents per hundredweight.

Find Grave Isn't Where It Should Be

HOBART, Okla. (AP)—Descendants of Chief Big Bow, a fierce old Kiowa Indian warrior buried in 1901, and others gathered Wednesday about what they thought was the grave of the ex-Army scout in a planned brief ceremony.

His remains were to have been transferred to Ft. Sill for military rites.

Diggers, however, could not locate the grave on the farm land, even though they looked in 50 places while the crowd waited.

Europe's Prosperity Pains Could Spread to US Shores

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Europe's struggles with prosperity's problems could spread to the United States.

The immediate troubles in Europe, and the distant threats here, are inflationary price increases and rising interest rates to fight them. Both are children of Europe's fast economic expansion and spreading consumer prosperity.

Placid as the U.S. monetary position looks today, Europe's moves to fight inflation by raising interest rates could soil American waters.

This is because much of our recent gains in bringing our international monetary transactions into better balance have been due to keeping idle investment money at home. Now, as Europe's interest rates go up, so does the yen of investors to reach for the higher yields abroad.

Europe's battle with inflation now contrasts with the slow rise in prices here in recent years. The rash of rising interest rates abroad of late contrasts with the stability here. American monetary authorities have been able to hold short-term rates high enough to keep money at home, and long-term rates low enough to encourage the economic growth which has become the national goal.

Part of the success is due to international monetary pacts preventing big swings of capital from nation to nation, which would upset currency exchanges and threaten another run on U.S. gold reserves. These international agreements are now being put to the test.

This week National Bank of Denmark has increased to 6½ per cent from 5½ per cent its charges on loans to commercial banks. Last week the bank rate in the Netherlands went to 4½ per cent from 4 per cent. Earlier in the year the British bank rate was jumped to 5 per cent from 4 per cent. Swiss and German interest rates have advanced. Italy is expected to make a similar move to fight inflation there.

The comparable U.S. Federal Reserve discount rate still holds at 3½ per cent. The link between rising prices and interest rates is that by hiking bank charges business booms are discouraged, along with consumer eagerness to borrow to buy goods.

Woman Mechanic Retires at Age 74

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—White-haired Mona Haines, 74, has sold her business and is going to retire after 35 years as operator and mechanic of a service station on a busy city corner.

She opened the station after her husband died in 1929, and has kept it open from 6 a.m. to midnight seven days a week with only a little help at times from a son and daughter.

Gasoline rationing closed the station temporarily in World War II, and during that time Mrs. Haines was an Army airplane mechanic.

Mrs. Haines says she's "just naturally mechanically inclined" and she's recognized as a top hand at fixing automobiles.

But she has never learned to drive a car.

"I'm going to the World's Fair this summer," she said, "but somebody else will have to do the driving. I'm not silly enough to start driving a car now."

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

GUANTANAMO SHOOTING: The United States has denied a charge from Havana that Marine sentries at the U.S. Guantanamo Naval Base had fired on and wounded a Cuban soldier at a nearby guard post.

The Defense Department called the charge "typical of the irresponsible and unfounded allegations originated by the Castro regime."

In Havana, a government source said this was the first time a Cuban had been wounded but "our men have been fired on before."

The Pentagon said in its statement it had checked the report with the base commander and that a "careful investigation has confirmed that no ammunition was expended by Marine guards or any other U.S. personnel last night."

"Schools and employers report that persons with training for specific occupations are

Some of the best pickings for two-year school graduates are for those with training in fields of business administration, and medical service and as engineering technicians.

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

DISARMAMENT: Sen. Joseph S. Clark today blamed a belligerent congressional minority—and he included specifically Sen. Barry Goldwater—for blocking the road to complete and general disarmament.

This "boisterous belligerency in foreign policy," led by a self-perpetuating few, "is a constant drag to our efforts to wage the peace," said Clark, a Pennsylvania Democrat.

They rally against any treaty, "no matter how minor, with the Communist world," he said in a speech prepared for delivery to the General Assembly of United World Federalists.

Clark called upon advocates of disarmament to take "issue with the military-industrial complex and all those who, like Sen. Goldwater and many a Democratic senator, as well, pursue a belligerent line in foreign policy."

Goldwater, the front-running contender for the Republican presidential nomination, was the only member of Congress named by Clark in his speech.

TAXES: Dr. Raymond J. Saulnier, chief economic adviser to President Dwight D. Eisenhower a decade ago, has called for a halt to "the Kennedy-Johnson expenditure explosion."

Saulnier charged in a Republican panel's report issued on Thursday that many of the President's projected spending reductions are either "of doubtful practicability" or stem from "bookkeeping devices."

Johnson has used more of these bookkeeping devices "than any other administration in history," said Saulnier, a professor of economics at Columbia University, in the Republican Critical Issues Council Report.

WARREN COMMISSION: Marina Oswald testified again Thursday to the presidential commission investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and, a source close to the commission confirmed, was questioned about a report that her late husband threatened to kill Richard M. Nixon.

The source declined to reveal what answers the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald gave when questioned about the report and a second one that she had blocked an attempt on Nixon's life by locking Oswald in his room.

Mrs. Oswald refused to discuss her six-hour testimony and her attorney, William A. McKenzie, shielded her from news-men's questions, even those she seemed disposed to answer.

Kennedy was murdered last Nov. 22 while riding in an open car through the streets of Dallas. Nixon had visited the city

Airline Subsidy Modification Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Modification of the subsidy formula for local service airlines which would reduce government subsidy to them by more than $1 million is proposed by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The proposed new formula, to go into effect July 1, would cut down the subsidy to some airlines, increase it to others.

Among them, Frontier Airlines of Denver would suffer the biggest reduction, $1,068,000, to a new annual subsidy from the government of $7,229,000.

Central Airlines of Fort Worth would be cut $285,000 to $4,054,000, but Ozark Airlines of St. Louis would get an increase of $270,000 to $5,237,000 a year.

He was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $5,000. He was released on bond and was granted an extension of that bond to next June 29, pending a hearing in the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Four other union officials were indicted in connection with the misuse of union money. Only Hayes and Roy Lee Williams were convicted.

A witness said Hayes was carrying the couple's bowlingbags to their car in the parking lot when a car pulled up and a man got out on the driver's side and fired once with a shotgun.

Hayes was hit in the chest and abdomen from close range. One expended shell was found.

Police issued a pickup order for two Negro men seen leaving the parking lot in a car. One was reported armed with a shotgun and the other with a pistol.

The shooting occurred in the parking lot at the King Louie East Bowl, 7910 Troost. Shortly after midnight police found an abandoned car at 83rd and Troost. It matched the description of the slayers' car and the motor was still warm.

Hayes had an arrest record dating back to 1917. He was convicted in December, 1962 of embezzlement and conspiracy in

Oil Lease Activities In Missouri

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Oil lease activity reminiscent of the old boom days is taking place along the Missouri-Kansas state line, according to the Oil & Gas Journal.

The leasing has been triggered by interest of the major oil companies in extensive deposits of what is known as heavy oil which can not be pumped to the surface by conventional methods. It's too thick.

"Unleased acreage in the border region has virtually vanished," the Journal says.

It reports that one major is testing techniques for recovery, and that other companies plan tests. Methods used are expected to utilize steam or fire-flood methods to thin the oil enough to get it to the surface.

It is definitely oil, not asphalt or tar, but very thick, and located in shallow sands, less than 200 feet below the ground in Vernon County, Mo. This prevents application of too much pressure.

Presence of the heavy oil has been known since early days of the industry, but conventional techniques of bringing it above ground are not economical.

"Estimates of the volume of hydrocarbons in place fluctuate," the Journal reports, "but even the most conservative sources figure it in the several-billion-barrel range, and some go as high as 30 billion barrels."

U. S. crude oil reserves recoverable now are estimated at only 34.6 billion barrels.

Ulett Wants Nine Clinics For Retarded

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Missouri Legislature will be asked to provide money for nine clinics for mentally retarded children.

Dr. George Ulett, director of the state division of mental diseases, said Thursday he will request $400,000 each for the clinics.

At a meeting with the Missouri Council of Juvenile Court Judges, Dr. Ulett said a system of clinics over the state would help take care of the growing number of mentally retarded delinquent children.

Juvenile court judges expressed concern over the growing waiting list of referrals to the state school and hospital for retarded children at Marshall.

"They're holding children in the community who should be in institutions," said Judge Andrew J. Higgins of Platte County. "There are more people needing the services of Marshall than vacancies exist." He said it might take two weeks to six months to get a child admitted to Marshall.

The Marshall hospital was designed for mentally retarded children, but many of the patients there are 50 or 60 years old and have been there 10 or 20 years, Dr. Ulett said.

He said the regional clinics might be eligible for federal funds now available from the panel on mental retardation.

Some judges said they have been able to speed up correction by declaring a delinquent an adult and having him tried in circuit court or sent to a state mental hospital when Marshall is full. But that doesn't always work.

"Every juvenile I have certified for circuit court was turned loose," Judge Woodson Oldham of Joplin said.

The judges said another problem is the low salary available for juvenile court staff workers. A juvenile officer begins at $325 a month in Kansas City, and the top salary is $6,900 a year.

"We can't get college graduates for that price," said Cornelius Costello of the Jackson County counselor's office.

Judge Michael Carroll of St. Louis County was elected president of the council; Judge R. Kenneth Elliott of Clay County, vice president, and Judge Marshall Craig of Scott County, secretary-treasurer.

Montana Threatened By More High Water

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — New flooding was a threat in Montana today.

Residents of Shelby, near the Canadian border, worked through the night sandbagging two large farm reservoirs.

Dams threatened to go out as the third and lowest dam in the reservoir chain did Thursday afternoon, flooding an area including about 300 Shelby homes. There were no injuries.

In southern Montana the Jefferson River, one of three major tributaries of the Missouri, was flooding its lowlands and had torn out at least one bridge.

At least 30 people died and others still were missing after three days of flooding earlier this week.

Liquor, Gambling Raid Gets Results

PITTSBURG, Kan. (AP) — The Amvets Club west of Pittsburg was raided Thursday night by Sheriff Bill Strukel, Deputy James Davis and six alcoholic beverage control agents.

Sammy Thomas, the proprietor, was arrested on four counts of possession of illegal gambling devices, and for operating an open saloon. His wife was charged with serving liquor.

Strukel said several dozen fifths of liquor and four slot machines were confiscated. Customers were ordered to leave.

Bond for Thomas was set at $1,500, with $250 for his wife.

World News Glimpses

HAVANA (AP) — Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa says his country will take "fitting" measures against attacks on Cuban soldiers by U.S. guards at the Guantanamo Naval Base.

The government Thursday night made public Roa's protest over the alleged wounding of a Cuban soldier by U.S. sentries at Guantanamo Tuesday night. The U.S. Defense Department has denied the charge and suggested the Cuban may have been shot by Fidel Castro's own troops hunting rebels.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri has launched an effort to settle India's long, bitter dispute with Pakistan over Kashmir.

In his first broadcast since succeeding the late Prime Minister Nehru, Shastri said Thursday night "a great deal of patience will be necessary" to settle the differences, but added that India and Pakistan were linked by common history and traditions.

Shastri also appealed for harmony between India's Hindu majority and Moslem minority.

COLOGNE, Germany (AP) — A crazed man who fatally speared two women teachers and seared 28 children and another teacher with a flame thrower died Thursday night after he was shot by police, then gulped down poison.

The worker, Walter Seifert, 40, a tubercular lathe operator, was shot in the pelvis as he tried to flee from the school. Before police could subdue him he swallowed the contents of a small bottle of insect killer.

Doctors who treated Seifert for tuberculosis had classed him as mentally unstable but harmless. Before he died he told police he was fed up with the way physicians had treated his illness and "wanted to take revenge."

NEW YORK (AP) — The Student Admissions Center says about 60,000 places are still open in next semester's freshman classes of two-year and four-year accredited colleges.

G. James Hechtman, director of the center, said Thursday that there is more room available than is popularly believed. "The problem is one of distribution of applications rather than a lack of physical space," he said.

The school started 78 years ago as a training school for rabbis, and in recent years developed into a university.

8 Defendants Escape Death After Trial

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — The eight defendants in the South African sabotage trial escaped the death penalty today. All were sentenced to life imprisonment.

Death sentences given earlier to three opponents of South Africa's racial laws had caused a storm of protest abroad. The U.N. Security Council on Monday adopted a resolution appealing to the South African government not to execute the three and not to give death sentences to the eight who were convicted Thursday.

A ninth defendant in the trial was acquitted. The eight men sentenced today included African national leaders Nelson Mandela and Walter Sisulu; Dennis Goldberg, a white civil engineer; four other Africans, and an Indian, Ahmed Kathrada.

Industry Produced Rocket Is Tested

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — The eight engines of the first industry-produced Saturn Roman I space booster roared for 143 seconds without a hitch Thursday in a full-duration static test firing at the Marshall Space Flight Center.

The huge booster was built by the Chrysler Corp. at the Michoud operations plant in New Orleans.

The booster, the SI-8, produced 1.5 million pounds of thrust. It is almost identical to six Saturns which previously made successful flights from Cape Kennedy, Fla.

It will now be transported to the cape where it is expected to launch a giant meteoroid detection satellite early in 1965.

Couple Home Disenchanted With Russia

NEW YORK (AP) — Disenchanted and broke, Morris and Mollie Block have returned home after five years in the Soviet Union, where they had gone to find a better life.

The couple told of loneliness, poverty and lack of freedom in Odessa. They spoke to newsmen at Kennedy Airport. With them was their adopted daughter, Joanna, 13.

"We would never return to that hell," said Block, 43.

Asked when she became disillusioned with the Communist system, Mrs. Block, 52, said: "It took me three months. It took my husband two years."

"Socialism as expounded by Karl Marx has been completely prostituted in the Soviet Union," she said.

The couple said they left the Soviet Union because "of the lack of freedom, poverty and intimidation of the people."

Their combined income of about $184 a month wasn't enough, they said. Block was a machinist; his wife a laboratory assistant in a clinic.

The couple did not renounce their U.S. citizenship. Mrs. Block said she had been a Communist before going to the Soviet Union, but never joined the party there because Soviet citizenship was required.

The family arrived with about $1.10. They said they had sold most of their belongings and borrowed money to pay the plane fare home.

"It's a real joke," said Mrs. Block. "After 2½ years of trying to get exit visas they gave us 12 days to get out. We were expelled."

She said they were falsely charged with distributing Communist Chinese propaganda.

Swede Officer Sentenced As A Russian Spy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Col. Stig Wennerstrom of the Swedish air force was sentenced to life in prison today for spying against Sweden for the Soviet Union.

The sentence, Sweden's most severe in peacetime, was handed down 10 days before Soviet Premier Khrushchev is due in Stockholm on a visit.

When Wennerstrom was arrested a year ago, Premier Tage Erlander said relations between Sweden and the Soviet Union had been seriously disturbed by the case. But recently he declined to comment when asked how this might affect Khrushchev's visit.

Wennerstrom, 57, was arrested after 14 years of espionage activities in Moscow, Washington and Stockholm.

His activity was mainly directed against the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, he said.

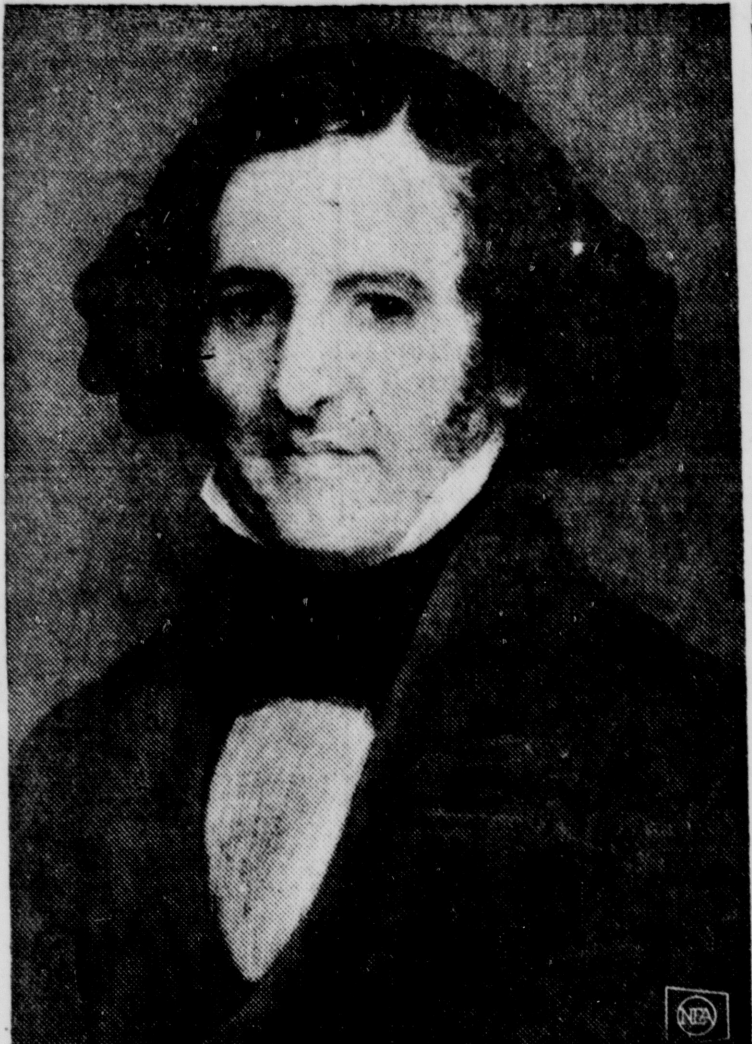

Wennerstrom received notice of the sentence from the Central Criminal Court in a special steel and concrete prison "bunker" in which he has been kept since a suicide attempt.

He will be eligible for parole after 10 years.

McGaha New Skipper

Lopat Fired by Athletics

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mel McGaha takes over as manager of the Kansas City Athletics in the city where he first managed a major league club—Cleveland.

The A's fired Ed Lopat, former New York Yankee pitching star, Thursday and immediately replaced him with the 37-year-old McGaha, coach with the club for a year.

The announcement Thursday by General Manager Pat Friday kept McGaha from going to Witheville, Va., where he was to have reported in a few days as manager of the A's Rookie League farm club.

Lopat was stoic about being fired.

"It's standard procedure as far as baseball managers are concerned," he said. "It's easier to change the manager than to change five or 10 ball players."

McGaha, who flew here for a four-game series starting tonight, was asked about his plans for the Athletics, now in 10th place.

"Nothing drastic," he replied. "I intend to put the nine best men available on the field."

McGaha, whose rookie season as a major league manager was in Cleveland in 1962, said he may use starters as relievers. He did that as Cleveland manager and was criticized for it.

Lopat, a coach for the A's in 1962, took over as manager on the last day of the season when Hank Bauer stepped down. Last season the club had a 73-89 record. So far this season it is 17-35.

Lopat, whose contract runs through the 1965 season, said he did not plan to accept an offer to work with the young pitchers on the club.

Emile Griffith Tangles With Luis Rodriguez

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The world welterweight crown, which has been in and out of the hands of Emile Griffith since 1961, goes on the line again tonight when the New York champion faces ex-champion Luis Rodriguez of Miami.

The 15-round bout will be televised nationally over the ABC network, starting at 7 p.m. (PPD). It will be screened live in the West instead of coming by delayed tape several hours later, as has been the procedure the past year.

Rodriguez, the 26-year-old Cuban exile who won and lost the title in two fights with Griffith in New York last year, remained an 8-5 favorite to return to the top spot of the 147-pound division.

Griffith, 25, a native of the Virgin Islands, is regarded as the harder puncher, while Rodriguez, who is slightly taller and has a two-inch advantage in reach, might be the better boxer.

Rodriguez in 60 fights has won 56, 22 by knockouts and has never been stopped.

Beat Cleveland 5-4

McBride's Losing Skein Ends at 10

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

After laboring in vain for nearly two months, Ken McBride has gone on relief and hit the jackpot.

McBride, a 28-year-old right-hander, halted his 10-game losing streak as the Los Angeles Angels nipped Cleveland 5-4 in 12 innings Thursday night.

The one-time ace of the Angels' pitching staff beat Washington 4-0 on opening day, April 13, then lost 10 consecutive games in 12 more starts. His latest start—and defeat—was last Sunday.

Then, against the Indians Wednesday night, Manager Bill Rigney brought McBride in from the bullpen for his first relief appearance since April 19, 1962. He didn't give up a hit in 1-2-3 innings.

He relieved again Thursday night, coming on this time in a 4-4 game with two on and none out in the ninth inning. He got Vic Davalillo on a grounder and induced Leon Wagner to hit into a double play.

McBride pitched two more innings, allowing one hit, before leaving for pinchhitter Willie Smith in the 12th. Smith's single started the winning rally.

The season for McBride has been one of utter frustration. He won 13 games and lost 12 for the Angels last year and had a 3.26 earned-run average.

Elsewhere in the league, Baltimore defeated Chicago 3-1, New York whipped Boston 8-4 and Minnesota downed Detroit 4-2.

After singling for McBride, Smith was forced at second by Tom Satriano. Ed Kirkpatrick's single and an intentional walk to Jim Fregosi moved Satriano to third from where he scored on Lou Clinton's sacrifice fly.

Dean Chance started for the Angels and ran his scoreless inning string to 28 before Bob Chance singled home two runs for the Indians in the sixth. Dick Howser's two-run single tied it in the ninth. Joe Adcock and Felix Torres each drove in two runs for Los Angeles.

A two-run homer by Brooks Robinson in the eighth carried the Orioles past the White Sox. The blow off Hoyt Wilhelm broke a 1-1 tie. Luis Aparicio homered for Baltimore in the sixth. Tom McCraw got Chicago off to a 1-0 lead in the first with a homer off Milt Pappas.

Mickey Mantle slammed two home runs and Roger Maris one for the Yankees. Mantle connected with one on in the fifth, then slugged his 10th homer with the bases empty in the seventh. Maris' 10th came in the third. All of the blows were off starter Bill Monbouquette.

Ed Bressoud and Felix Mantilla homered against Jim Bouton, who won his fourth game in nine decisions. Bouton doubled and scored in the fifth and belted a two-run single in the eighth.

Dick Stigman and reliever Garland Shifflett stopped Detroit on three hits as Earl Battey knocked across three runs. Shifflett pitched the ninth after Stigman walked leadoff batter Al Kaline. Bill Freehan and Don Demeter tagged Stigman for home runs in the fifth.

Battey slashed a run-scoring double in the third and smashed a two-run homer in the fourth.

Rich Purse For Filly Race Winner

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" will be the theme song for the top horse race in the United States Saturday. That will be $100,000-added Coaching Club American Oaks for 3-year-old fillies, a testing 1¼-mile that is regarded as the filly counterpart of the Belmont Stakes.

This wind-up of the triple crown for fillies will be raced at Aqueduct again this year and it appears a wide-open scramble with a bulky field of 12 or 14 likely.

Castle Forbes, winner of the Acorn Stakes the first leg of the fillies' triple crown and Screee, winner of the Mother Goose, the second leg, are back along with Face The Facts, Just Fancy That, Bold Queen, Miss Cavandish, Petite Rouge, Nashubah, Ironshire, Match Point, Road To Romance and Capricious Miss.

Manuel Ycaza, who guided Quadrangle to victory in the Belmont last week and blasted Northern Dancer's hopes of sweeping the Triple Crown, will ride Face The Facts. And it is just possible that the W. Haggin Perry filly will bring victory to her owner for the second straight year. In 1963, the ill-fated Lamb Chop won in the Perry silks.

Face The Facts was third to Castle Forbes in the Acorn and second to Screee in the Mother Goose and may be expected to appreciate the added distance of the CCAO along with Just Fancy That, a fast-closing third in the Mother Goose at 74-1.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Dodgers swatted St. Louis pitching for 14 hits and a 5-0 victory in Los Angeles Thursday night as Don Drysdale limited the Cards to four hits.

Kansas City was idle but the A's picked up a headline as they fired Manager Ed Lopat and named Mel McGaha as his successor. McGaha will lead the A's against the Indians in Cleveland tonight.

Johnny Roseboro paced the Dodger attack with three hits. Junior Gilliam, Willie Davis, Wally Moon and John Parker each had two hits.

Kurznowski Has Golf Title Chance

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — John Kurznowski, of Aquinas College, Mich., who finished fourth last year, has a chance to take the title today in the NCAA college division golf tournament.

A 68 Thursday sent Kurznowski into today's final 18 holes with a 212 total for 54 holes.

Crowding him was Bob Smith of Sacramento State at 213. Robert Irving of Sacramento was in third place at 217.

Southern Illinois moved into the team lead at 886 on the strength of Gene Carello's 68. San Diego State had 888, Sacramento 889, and Springfield State, defending champion, was fourth at 904.

'Blue Moon' Odom Makes Pro Debut

MACON, Ga. (AP) — Johnny (Blue Moon) Odom, Kansas City Athletics' $75,000 bonus pitcher, made his professional baseball debut Thursday night as a starter for Birmingham of the Southern League.

Odom fanned seven and gave up seven hits and seven free passes. He was the losing pitcher as Macon won 9-7.

Athletic owner Charles Finley watched the game. He said he felt that Odom did fine considering the fact that the young right-hander had not pitched in more than a month since he left high school.

Birmingham is a farm club of Kansas City.

The loss went to Washburn, his fourth against two victories. Drysdale has now won eight games and lost five.

The only Card threat came in the fourth when they loaded the bases with one out. Groat singled, Bill White doubled and Ken Boyer was given an intentional walk. The runners had to hold on a shallow center field fly by Charley James and Tim McCarver grounded out to end the inning.

Kansas City was scheduled to send Diego Segui to the mound against the Indians but McGaha indicated he may call on Orlando Pena and move Segui back a day in the rotation. Sam McDowell is the listed starter for Cleveland.

Curt Simmons or Ernie Broglio is expected to open for the Cards against the Dodgers Sandy Koufax.

John W. Bohon, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett W. Bohon of Route 2, and Don L. Eye, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Eye of Route 1, have completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The nine-week training includes naval orientation, history and organization, seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, military drill, first aid and survival.

During the training recruits receive tests and interviews which determine their future assignments in the Navy. Upon completing the program they are assigned to service schools for technical training or to ships and stations for on-the-job training in a Navy rating specialty.

Second Lieutenant Kenneth W. Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Simpson of Hamilton, Mo., has completed the rigorous U.S. Air Force Survival and Special Training School at Stead AFB, Nev.

Lieutenant Simpson, a C-130 aircraft co-pilot, was trained to use equipment and techniques that would enable him to survive regardless of climatic conditions or unfriendly environments. The course, conducted by the Air Training Command, includes basic survival, combat survival, evasion and escape and counterinsurgency training.

The lieutenant is being reassigned to Naha AB, Okinawa, for duty in a unit of the Pacific Air Forces (PACAF) which provides airpower for defense of the U.S. and its allies in the Pacific area.

The lieutenant's wife, Martha, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earl C. Macey of 765 S. Brunswick, Marshall. He received his BS degree in agriculture from the University of Missouri.

Army PFC Jerry Van Steenburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Van Steenburgh, Houstonia, participated with other members of 3rd Armored Division units in a week of annual training tests (ATT) at Wildflecken, Germany, ending May 29.

The ATT is a tough and complete assessment of a unit's combat readiness under the most realistic conditions possible in peacetime.

The 20-year-old soldier, a member of Headquarters Company, 2d Battalion of the division's 32d Armor near Kirch-Gons, Germany, entered the Army in April 1963 and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood.

Cadet Dennis E. W. Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Ferguson, Windsor, left June 7 from United States Air Force Academy, Colo., for a summer study tour of air force, army and navy operations at installations across the nation.

Cadet Ferguson, a graduate of Windsor High School and a member of the academy class of '67, will visit bases and ships of the fleet from California to New Hampshire before completing the tour at Fort Benning, Ga. He will participate in operational training missions and briefings that will give him a thorough indoctrination on responsibilities and capabilities of major commands in the Department of Defense.

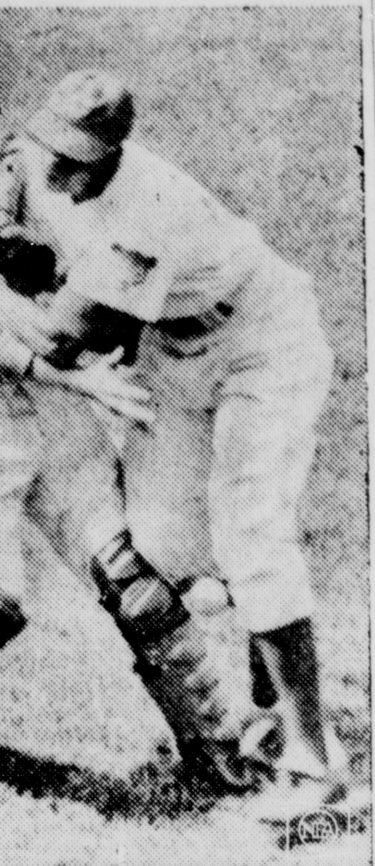

The cadet is one of more than 600 members of his class receiving summer training to help prepare them for duty as future air force officers. The program includes participation in air operations on aircraft carriers, flights with combat-ready jet fighter and bomber crews, demonstrations at operational air force missile sites and by battlefield infantry troops, and briefings at air force research, development and logistics facilities.

Army Pvt. Jackie D. Wheelon, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlow E. Wheelon, Route 1A, Knob Noster, Mo., was assigned to Headquarters Company, U.S. Army Garrison, at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., May 28.

Wheelon went on active duty last February and is an aircraft mechanic in the company.

TOKYO (AP) — Marshal P. Pibulsonggram, premier of Thailand for 15 years, died of a heart attack Thursday night at his home near Tokyo after seven years in exile. He was 67.

Pibulsonggram survived by half a year Marshal Sarit Thanarat, who ousted him in a bloodless coup on Sept. 7, 1957. He had lived quietly with his wife in Japan since December 1957, except for one year as a lecturer at the University of California in Berkeley.

Remains of Chief Are Sought in Vain

HOBART, Okla. (AP) — The remains of Kiowa Indian Chief Big Bow, an ex-Army scout who died in 1901, were sought in vain Thursday by 25 persons, a helicopter, a road grader and a metal detector.

A reburial ceremony was interrupted Tuesday when the grave couldn't be found. The remains of the old chief were to have been transferred to Ft. Sill for military rites.

Poison Is Not the Answer

Anyway you look at it, poison is a coward's weapon whether used to reduce the human or the dog population.

The season is here when numerous Sedalians become boiling mad because others let their animals run loose or howl at night. Gardeners become incensed and families with children fearful because of roaming dogs.

We don't know what percentage of the canine and feline population inhabits Sedalia, but there are at least 90,000,000 dogs and cats in America according to the National Humane Society. And while you read this, puppies and kittens are being born at the rate of nearly a quarter-million a day, 10,000 an hour and 165 a minute!

As a result, decent homes can't be provided for them all so the nation winds up with about 15 million homeless dogs and 25 million homeless cats.

Any community's poundmaster will tell you that homeless dogs and cats present a year round problem. Those familiar with this cruel situation are agreed that one answer is the spaying of females cats and dogs that should not breed, or otherwise control them.

Aside from the terrible problem of homeless animals roaming the community there are many whose owners let them loose deliberately or who are lax in confining them properly so they then become neighborhood nuisances. There is a dog ordinance covering this situation. If animals continue to become unrestrained by the owners the police may have to crack down and arrest violators.

In the meantime, restraint is asked of those whose tempers get out of control because neighbors are careless about letting their pets run loose. Can't they be more reasonable and humane than to put out poison in any form for animals to consume? It just might happen some child may become a victim.

An incident reported to the police this week was discovery of a patty of hamburger containing ground glass on the back porch of a pet owner's home. What if a child had got that into its stomach?

Poison is not the answer to any dog problem in Sedalia. No one yet has exhausted the legal steps which can be taken or the help of the authorities at city hall.

The World Today

One More Twist In a Hectic Week

By JAMES MARLOW

AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania does today what he seems ready to do—tell the country that he will seek the Republican presidential nomination—it will be just one more twist in an already unforgettable week.

And if the public is no less confused after he does, the prime movers in the Republican party—Scranton not excluded—will have to share the blame.

For while Sen. Barry Goldwater was emerging as the GOP's only aggressive leader, they were looking more like caretakers than captains. They were sitting back, doing nothing, saying nothing now that New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the only top Republican willing to stick his neck out against Goldwater, seemed at the end of the line although he says he is still in the running.

While Goldwater and Rockefeller were slugging it out in the primaries, there was always the fine chance the two would knock each other out of all consideration before the Republican nominating convention in July. That would leave the field wide open to those would-be presidents who said they'd accept the nomination but would not fight for it.

After Goldwater's California primary victory all but sewed up the nomination for him, they began to wring their hands. They showed concern for the nation and the party but never enough to really do anything about it.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was also concerned but he didn't show any more leadership than the others. He told The Associated Press Thursday his main concern is in seeing an open convention and a platform and ticket that would build the party to its maximum strength.

He didn't hide his reservations about some aspects of Goldwater's conservative philosophy but, as he put it, he wants to be in a position to pick up the pieces after the convention and help unite the party behind its nominee.

He had said he wouldn't interfere in the selection of a candidate but before the Governors' Conference opened in Cleveland this week he called Scranton and nudged him toward some activity.

Scranton had said he would not seek the nomination but would accept it if drafted. Eisenhower suggested he not be so rigid about waiting to be drafted.

Of all the Republican leaders, Scranton put on the most indecisive and confusing performance. He said one time he could run for the vice presidency on Goldwater's ticket and indicated his views on issues weren't too far apart.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan said he'd do everything in his power to stop Goldwater but when former Vice President Richard M. Nixon suggested that Romney actively seek the nomination in opposition to Goldwater, Romney wouldn't.

But Nixon who would like the nomination, but says he isn't a candidate, explained that in urging Romney to oppose Goldwater he wasn't really trying to start a stop-Goldwater move although it might have that effect.

There was always the chance of course, that if Romney and Goldwater fought each other until the convention got deadlocked on them, Nixon might have a chance, perhaps his best and only chance, to be picked finally as a compromise candidate.

Nixon said Scranton would be a good vice-presidential running mate for Goldwater, a view which, if caught on, might erase Scranton from the convention's mind as a presidential candidate at all.

Scranton repaid the compliment by suggesting that Nixon, who had been vice president eight years under Eisenhower, would be just the man to run for the vice presidency again.

If all this adds up to some kind of political chaos, that is what it was. Goldwater? All he had to do was sit back and watch the spectacle.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Emphysema Is Chronic, But Not Contagious

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.,
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Q—Is emphysema contagious or is it an allergy? Is there any cure?

A—Emphysema is a very common and a very chronic lung ailment in persons over 50. It is caused by air being trapped in the lungs due to a valvular obstruction. This obstruction occurs chiefly in heavy smokers, persons with chronic bronchitis and those who live in areas of extreme air pollution. It is not contagious and not an allergy. Its effects are sometimes similar to those of asthma.

Although there is no cure, the best treatment is early diagnosis. This will enable your doctor to prevent serious lung damage. If you have emphysema you should report to your doctor whenever you get a cold or other acute disease of the nose or lungs. It is helpful to quit smoking and to keep fit through moderate, but regular exercise. If your work requires you to breathe dusty or sooty air, you can prolong your life by wearing a respirator or changing your occupation.

Your doctor can help you by giving you antibiotics for some types of complicating infection. Other drugs, such as isoproterenol, will dilate the blocked air passages. Breathing exercises (humming, laughing and singing) are often useful.

Even victims with far advanced emphysema can be helped.

Vanillic diethylamide, a respiratory stimulant, allows easier breathing. Inhalation of oxygen may make the difference between being confined to bed and being up and about. Postural drainage of the lungs (hanging over the edge of a bed for 10 minutes with your head near the floor) is another favorite method of treatment.

Q—Is it possible to be desensitized to the pollen that gives me hay fever in the summer?

A—First you must identify the pollen that is causing your hay fever. Desensitization must be started at least six weeks in advance of the time you usually get your attacks. It must be repeated every year.

Q—I have taken Placidyl every night to get to sleep for several years. Is it habit-forming? What are the side effects and what would happen if I suddenly stopped taking it?

A—Ethchlorvynol (Placidyl) is not habit-forming. It is much safer than the commonly used barbiturates. Side effects may include dizziness, nightmares, headache, nausea, a bad aftertaste and drowsiness. If you suddenly stopped taking it you might have some trouble with insomnia because of your psychologic dependence on the drug, but in the long run it would be worth it.

School and You

The Theme 'Corrector'

By Susan Light
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT: I, too, sometimes wonder what teachers do these days. I'm thinking in particular of the laymen who are hired to grade themes.

When my son spends a lot of time and effort writing an essay, it seems that the least his English teacher could do is grade it herself.

But she turns it over to someone outside of school who knows nothing about him or his problems.

Whoever it is usually gives him lower grades than his teachers have done. Please comment. — DISGUSTED.

ANSWER: For overworked English teachers, "contact correctors," as they're called around here, are the greatest things since condensed books! In most cases, the students benefit, too.

Nothing is much more important to a student than the ability to write clearly, concisely and effectively. Yet many students fail to get sufficient practice in writing simply because most English teachers don't have time to grade 150 themes a week.

have five classes of 30 students each a day. If she assigns one theme a week and spends 15 minutes on each theme, she will put in 37½ hours per week just grading themes.

This is in addition to time spent teaching, preparing lessons, sponsoring student activities, attending workshops, faculty and PTA meetings, conferring with students and parents. The English teacher often directs the school newspaper, yearbook and class plays.

"Contract correctors" are generally ex-English teachers or former English majors with special ability in writing and grammar. In some school systems they are required to compete for their positions with written examinations. Many of them confer with the students whose themes they grade, getting to know them personally. They also keep in close touch with the English teacher whom they assist.

Chances are your son's themes are being evaluated more carefully than they've ever been before. If you feel they are not being graded fairly, I suggest you make an appointment with his teacher to discuss the matter. She may talk with the "corrector" or make arrangements for your son to do so.

Here's hoping he gets an "A" next time.

The Mature Parent

How Can I Live With Her?

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: If I had not met my husband, my mother would have succeeded in wrecking my life. She brought me up to hate men. She and my father split up when I was five. For years afterward, all she ever talked about was how he had never loved us and what rats men are. Now she is getting on in years and wants to come and live with my husband and me. Her letters are one long complaint about her aches and pains and how lonely she is.

ANSWER: It's certainly interesting to know that she tried to make you hate men. But hating men isn't your problem right now, is it? Your problem is: Do I or don't I invite my aging mother to live with me?

It is always interesting to know how our parents confused us as children. But the knowledge only becomes useful when we can see how the confusion is still in control of us — right now, this very minute. So I am suggesting that the knowledge you may now need to resolve your problem is the knowledge that you fear the prospect of living with your mother, not because she tried to make you hate men but because she tried to make you experience everything she experienced.

You remember how as a child she tried to make you feel her anguish as a lonely and deserted wife. You are terribly afraid that if she comes to live with you, she will try to make you feel all the aches and pains which belong to her as an aging woman. You wonder how close to the edge of her death she will try to drag you.

That's the real fear, isn't it?

There's no sense in my telling you that it is unreasonable; that as a person belonging to a different generation from your mother's you can't possibly undertake to feel her aches and pains with her any more than as a little girl, you could feel what she felt as an unloved woman.

Reason is never enough to clarify the kind of confusion we develop as the result of childhood association with parents who have insisted that we try to experience all their grownup feelings with them.

Parents of little boys and girls who demand sympathy for their grownup feelings from them invariably invite rejection in their old age. As the children cannot experience their grownup feelings, they have no sympathy to give. Like you, they retain the memory of agonized helplessness imposed by the parents.

When the passing years bring the time that should entitle their aging parents to their help, they are compelled to refuse it, feeling themselves to be as helpless and inadequate as they felt as overburdened little boys and girls.

Ethiopia: Key to Africa's Future

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson today continues his report from Ethiopia, a key battleground between East and West.)

By DREW PEARSON

ADDIS ABABA—Here are two conclusions I have arrived at after spending some time in this out-of-the-way but strategic part of the world:

1. One of the most important showdowns between the East and West is in the making in Ethiopia and adjacent East Africa. Upon its outcome may depend whether the United States loses Africa.

2. The United States must stand behind those who have supported it in the past—in this case Emperor Haile Selassie. It cannot ride two horses going in opposite directions by also trying to appease Nasser's Arab friends in East Africa.

The issue is immediate, and decisions in the nature of more military support for Ethiopia will have to be made now. Otherwise we may well find Africa starting to go the way of the Far East.

Haile Selassie has great prestige in Africa. He has put 2,000 students in the Haile Selassie University. He has established nine colleges. He has 500 young Ethiopians now studying abroad. He has 400 Peace Corps teachers working in Ethiopia, the third largest contingent in the world. He has trained an elite group of public servants to run his country and is working toward parliamentary government.

He had the vision to see the problems of African unity well ahead of any other African leader and to gamble $2,000,000 of his own money on building "Africa House" as a headquarters for an African summit meeting long before he knew whether African leaders could be induced to attend.

At the annual banquet and meeting of the Associated Churches at the Fifth Street Methodist Church, the following officers were elected: C. F. Scotten, president; the Rev. O. J. Rumpf, vice-president; Mrs. Phil Burford, secretary; Miss Frances Garman, treasurer; the Rev. R. A. Park, publicity secretary; the Rev. J. C. English, chairman of young people's activities; A. N. Poore, of Lewistown, Mont., a former Missouri teacher, was elected by the Sedalia Board of Education as vice-principal of Sedalia High school to fill the vacancy incurred by the resignation of A. U. Simmons, who has accepted a position as principal of Fayette High school. Five teachers were elected to fill vacancies in the grade schools: Dorothy Graham, Frances Crea-gan, Alice Penman, Angeline Renfrow and Mary Ann Russell. Marjorie Seale, of Guthrie, Okla., was elected teacher of History and English in Lincoln High school.

Fork Cleans Beater Batter

By Polly Cramer
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY—Clean heavy batter or dough off the beaters on your mixer by placing them between the tines of a fork and working down. The batter falls away easily and the beaters will be easier to wash.

Traveling men who cannot find the stays that go in their shirt collars will find that a toothpick on each side will make a good emergency stay.

I need your help with a sewing term that is unfamiliar to me. What does "couching down stitches with couching stitches" mean in embroidery talk? — MRS. E. W.

MRS. E. W. and others interested in embroidery — Plain couching is when a heavy thread or group of threads are laid on the fabric along a desired line or pattern. With another thread, the fabric along a desired line or pattern. With another thread, hold this heavy thread down with short stitches across it, made at regular intervals. Be careful that the heavy thread does not pucker. More elaborate couching may be done by using cross stitch, feather stitch, buttonhole stitch and so on to hold down the heavy thread or threads. — POLLY

Healing Arts Board Asks For Dismissal

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Board of Healing Arts asked Circuit Judge Sam C. Blair Thursday to dismiss the suit Dr. Harold B. Lischner filed because the board denied him a license to practice medicine in Missouri. The board's answer to Lischner's charges also asked Judge Blair to uphold the board's refusal to give the doctor a Missouri license.

Dr. Lischner, at one time on the staff of the University of Missouri School of Medicine as a pediatrician, now is on the staff of the University of Pennsylvania hospitals. He holds medical licenses in Pennsylvania and California.

Post Office Building Sale Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The proposed sale of the old Warrensburg, Mo., post office building to the city for use as a city hall has been approved by the U. S. General Services Administration.

close with the Jimmy Michals group in St. Louis. Michals holds absolute political power over two ward organizations in the City of St. Louis and through associates is an influence in several more."

In his answer, the board said Missouri law requires that applicants for medical licenses be of good moral character. And the law requires that the board determine every applicant's good character.

The board said during World War II Lischner was absent without leave from a conscientious objectors' camp, but the AWOL charge was later dismissed.

In his appearance before the board, the answer said, Dr. Lischner described himself as a pacifist and said he believed the dictates of individual conscience under some circumstances could cause him to disobey laws he believed unjust. That attitude, he said, would not apply to his work as a physician but only to social or political problems.

Besides, the board said in its answer, Dr. Lischner is not a resident of Missouri and does not propose to come here even if granted a Missouri medical license. For that reason he is not eligible for a license in Missouri, the board said.

No date for a hearing has been set.

At Cape Kennedy

Saturn 5 Building Towers As the World's Tallest

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Rising from the swamplands of Cape Kennedy is a great steel skeleton which is being forged into the world's largest building.

More important than its size, however, is that this structure will be the assembly area for the giant Saturn 5 rockets which will ferry American astronauts to the moon.

The Vertical Assembly Building—VAB—will not be the tallest structure ever built. At its highest point, 524 feet, it will be less than half the height of the Empire State Building.

But the VAB will measure 710 feet long and 513 feet wide. These dimensions will enclose 125 million cubic feet, making it the biggest man-made structure, from the standpoint of volume, anywhere.

It will dwarf the present record holder—the great Pyramid of Cheops in Egypt, 96 million cubic feet.

When completed in 1966, the VAB will be the dominant feature of the sprawling $750-million moonport the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is constructing here for manned lunar flights starting late in this decade.

The price tag on the VAB is more than $100 million.

Designing required the combined work of 200 engineers from four New York firms.

Max O. Urbahn, head of one of the firms, said: "The paper-work alone was monumental. Approximately 2,500 separate drawings were submitted. The final specifications, drawn up and duplicated for the firms who bid on the construction, took a train carload to deliver from the printer."

"As an architectural structure," Urbahn said, "the VAB will be little more than a slick, polished box covering eight acres."

"Inside the box it is somewhat more interesting, with whole buildings hanging from its sides, some of them moving up and down and in and out like suspended file drawers, mating with one another to form still other buildings within buildings to house the space vehicles."

Many of these smaller buildings are enclosed, air-conditioned, dust-free work platforms which are shaped like halfmoons on one side so they will fit snugly against the side of the Saturn 5 rockets and Apollo spacecraft.

Four 400-foot-tall rockets and spacecraft can be checked simultaneously as they stand upright in the VAB.

Engineering problems included designing the huge building, which does not have regularly spaced floors inside as reinforcement, to withstand hurricane winds and the tremendous pressure and noise created by Saturn 5 rockets blasting off from launching pads 3.5 miles away; constructing four doors, each 460 feet high, through which the assembled rockets will pass, and airconditioning.

"We were faced with the fascinating possibility that the shape of the building might make it react like an immense box kite and blow away in high wind. We had to design pile foundations that would prevent that," Urbahn said.

Construction of the VAB began with a process called surcharging.

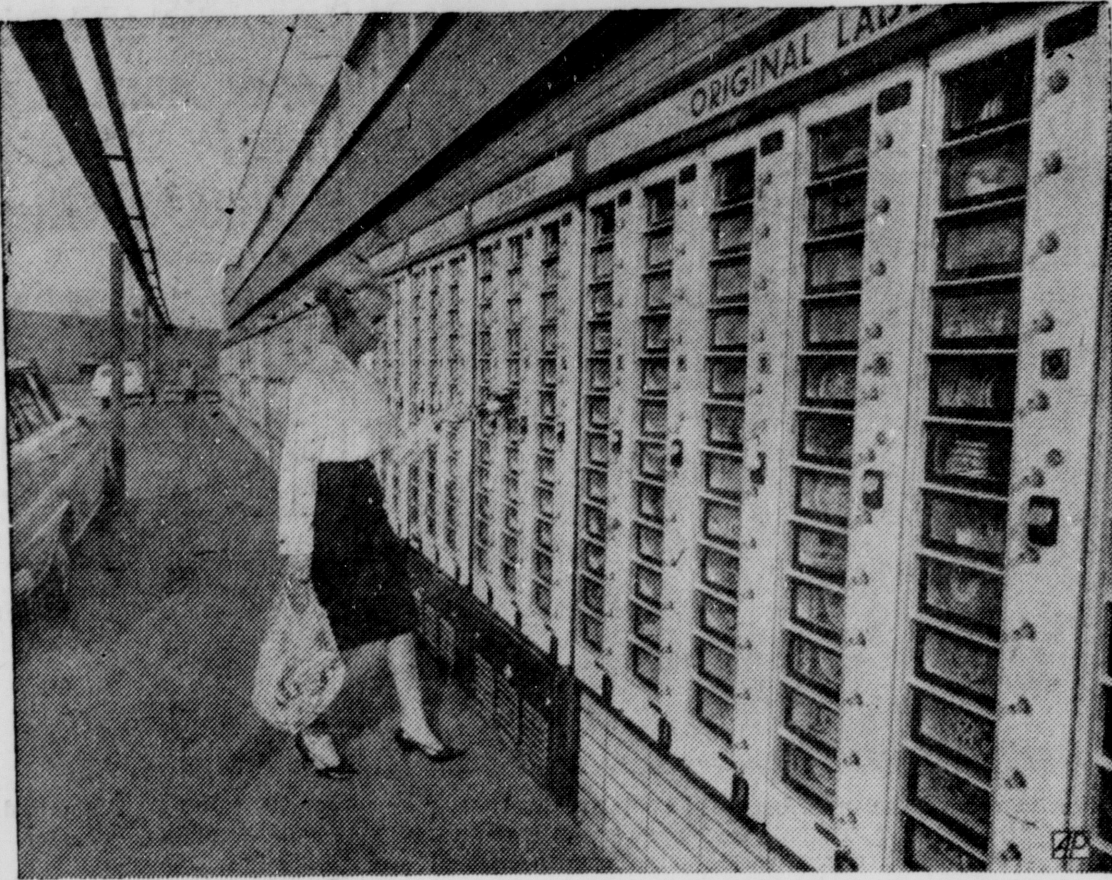

Sand was dredged up from the nearby Banana River by the Army Corps of Engineers and piled to a depth of 46 feet over the eight-acre site. The weight of this so-called surcharge bore down on the soggy swampland, squeezing out the water and firming the ground for foundation footings.

Pile drivers hammered 4,225 steel tubes, each 16 inches in diameter, into the bedrock 150 to 170 feet below the surface.

The steel anchor was capped by concrete to form the foundation for the VAB. Early this year, workmen began erecting the framework, which will require 50,000 tons of steel.

Once the steel skeleton is complete, it will be enclosed by more than a million square feet of corrugated aluminum siding.

Everything about the VAB is big. Its purpose, a link between

Katz Drug Store Set For Sedalia

Expectations of a Katz drug store for Sedalia were confirmed Wednesday in an announcement by Earl S. Katz in Kansas City that his firm is one of the lessees in the Thompson Hills Shopping Center under construction in west Sedalia. Mr. Katz is board chairman of the company.

Katz, in its 50th year of business, announced a $5 million expansion program which will include new stores at Manhattan, Kan., St. Joseph, Des Moines, Memphis and Sedalia.

Commenting on the Katz announcement two major stockholders in the Thompson Hills venture here said the Katz store will actually be larger than reported in the Kansas City Times. Sydney Jacobs, of Investors Associates in St. Louis, and E. W. Thompson, of Sedalia, said the store will contain 28,500 square feet as opposed to the 26,000 square feet reported by the Kansas City paper.

Jacobs went on to point out the shopping center is scheduled for opening in September with other lessees being Gambles Skogmo, TG & Y variety, Tempo department store and Consumers Market. The entire shopping center development will contain 106,000 square feet of area.

"Katz will have an extremely modernistic store, the largest drug store in the Sedalia trade area," Jacobs said. "It's size will be 150x190 feet and it will adjoin the court and mall area, directly to the west."

Notable in the move by Katz to Sedalia is that the store will be the firm's first outlet in a non-metropolitan area.

"Katz chose to come to Sedalia because of their confidence that the opportunity is here," Jacobs said, "and because Thompson Hills is considered a regional shopping center."

The new store will be air conditioned, color-keyed by departments for easy identification with different color schemes for each of the 50 departments.

Several State Projects Included In National Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee approved today about $1.5 billion to plan and build water projects across the nation in the fiscal year starting July 1.

This represents an increase of about $29 million over the amount requested by the administration for Army engineers and the Reclamation Bureau.

Taxpayer Chance To Save Money

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Taxpayers in 32 counties have a chance to save $1,744,724 in unnecessary county taxes, the Missouri Public Expenditure Survey reported Thursday.

The survey, a taxpayers' "watch dog" group, released a study showing the tentative tax rates set by the counties early this year could be cut an average 16 cents per $100 valuation.

It suggested taxpayers interested in getting the 1964 rates cut back to a cash basis level should make their views known to their county courts. Counties have until Sept. 1 to get the final tax rate.

All 32 counties involved are carrying surpluses larger than the amounts they expect to collect from 1964 taxes, the survey said. Surpluses arose from the levying of unnecessarily high rates in past years.

"Sound governmental finance dictates that a governmental unit should not impose a higher tax rate on citizens than is needed for current expenditures," the survey said. "When conditions permit, tax rates should be reduced and the money left in possession of the taxpayers."

The survey noted surpluses are a lure to groups with pet spending schemes "which are not easily parried when unused resources are on hand."

Here are the counties and the amounts the survey figures their tax rates could be cut if the counties were put on a cash basis:

Reconnaissance Flights Over Laos Requested Temporarily Suspended

Pathet Lao Makes Charge Shortly After Request

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma said Thursday he had asked a temporary suspension of U. S. reconnaissance flights over Laos but they will be resumed if necessary.

Shortly after he spoke, the pro-Communist Pathet Lao charged six U. S.-made planes bombed and strafed its headquarters at Khang Khay, destroying the office of Pathet Lao leader Prince Souphanouvong and homes of other officials.

In Washington, the U. S. Defense Department said it had no information of any such incident.

These were not the jet type planes, however, that the United States has been flying over Pathet Lao territory. The Pathet Lao described them as AT6 and T28 older-type planes that may have been supplied by the United States. The T28s, piloted by Laotians, have made a number of raids on Pathet Lao targets in recent weeks.

Communist charges of attacks by U. S. fighter-bombers on Pathet Lao targets apparently was a factor in Souvanna's request for a halt in the U. S. air missions.

Souvanna said he had asked the U. S. government to suspend the photographic missions over Communist-held areas "because there were no signs of troop movements" by the Pathet Lao, the pro-Communist military arm in Laos.

"If we receive information in the next few days that there are further troop movements," the neutralist premier told reporters, "the reconnaissance flights will be resumed."

There was a general impression that Souvanna was concerned over the angry reaction from the Pathet Lao because U. S. armed fighters began escorting the reconnaissance planes after a U. S. plane was shot down Saturday. He indicated Tuesday the armed fighters were used without his consent.

Souvanna still holds out hope of getting the Pathet Lao back to the peace table to head off all-out civil war in this Asian kingdom.

He underscored this hope by telling reporters he had accepted a proposal by Poland for six-power talks on the Laotian crisis and had messaged the Pathet Lao urging it to attend. Just back from the royal capital, Luang Prabang, he said King Savang Vathana agreed that the Polish plan should be accepted.

A Pathet Lao broadcast, however, said the "Polish proposal cannot help settle the Laotian problem." This echoed the line of Red China, which said the only solution was a conference of the 14 nations that met in Geneva in 1962 and set up a neutral Laos.

Search For Murder Weapon Of Biscoes

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Seven Metro Squad officers were on a four-mile walk today in search of the murder weapon in the slayings of two elderly women last April 29 near Smithville, Mo.

They walked from Smith cemetery, where the body of Mrs. Marion Biscoe, 67, was found, to the H & H Lake a mile north of Smithville. They followed the gravel roads on which Andrew Jackson Walker, 38-year-old ex-convict, took them 2 days ago. He said he was on the route the day Mrs. Biscoe and her mother, Mrs. Hattie Biscoe, 83, were slain.

Annual Audit Presented At Board Meet

Water Department In Best Condition Since City Purchase

The annual audit for the year ending March 31 was presented to the Board of Public Works at the regular meeting, and the Water Department received a "well done" tag from the auditing firm of Haskins & Sells.

The auditors reported the Water Department is in better financial and physical condition than during any year since the firm began auditing the books in 1957, and that under the present financial set-up the department should be in a condition to continue the eight-year improvement program as recommended by the engineering firm of Black & Veatch.

"If you expect any drastic recommendations for improvements from us, you are going to be disappointed," a representative from the auditing firm told the board before he presented his recommendations for minor changes in office procedure.

After explaining the audit, the representative said he or a member of his firm would be glad to meet with the City Council to answer any questions the council might have concerning the audit. The detailed audit is on file at the Water Department offices.

In other action the board entered into negotiations with the S&W Co. concerning the firm's low bid on construction of a foundation and related changes in the sewage system at the pumping station for a 1-million gallon water storage tank.

The board signed a contract for engineering work to be done on West Main in connection with the Urban Plan improvement in that area. The board will be reimbursed by the Highway Department for money expended on that project. The board approved payment of a bill submitted by Black & Veatch for engineering work, amounting to $2,419.31.

The ITT Kellogg Co. reported it had cleaned up the area at Spring Fork Lake where the missile cables crossed the property, and the board made an inspection of the area Thursday morning.

With Bipartisan Leadership

Senate Vetoes A Try To Change Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, with its bipartisan leadership in firm control of the voting, beat down by solid margins Thursday a succession of efforts to make major changes in the civil rights bill.

The only amendments approved — with the leadership acquiescence — were described generally as clarifying. Several were accepted by voice votes.

The rapid-fire voting was punctuated by only brief flurries of oratory — with senators rationing their words mostly in seconds and occasionally in sparing minutes. Each senator is limited to a total of one hour of talk on the bill and all amendments under the historic cloture clamped down Wednesday to end the Dixie filibuster.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., who offered one amendment after another, guarded his time by saying nothing about some of them before they were voted on.

Amendments rejected as the Senate drove toward expected final action on the bill next week, included these:

— 68 to 21 by Ervin to nullify the entire public accommodations title.

— 47 to 34 by Ervin to knock out the attorney general's broad authority to intervene in civil rights suits brought by individuals.

— 51 to 35 by Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., to make the exemption in the public accommodations section apply to rooming houses with 10 rooms or less — instead of five rooms or less, as the bill now provides.

— 56 to 25 by Ervin to eliminate authority for the attorney general to make agreements with states to certify that they are in compliance with the literacy test for voting under the act.

— 66 to 24 by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., to repeal the 1962 housing order by the late President John F. Kennedy under which homes financed with FHA insurance or VA guarantees in the future must be sold on a nondiscriminatory basis.

— 51 to 31 by Ervin to strike out a section of the bill which permits a defendant to appeal from a federal district court order sending a civil rights case back to a state court.

Warrensburg Post Office Sale Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—General Services Administration approval of the sale of the old Warrensburg, Mo., Post Office building to the city council for conversion into a city hall was reported Thursday.

Sens. Stuart Symington and Edward V. Long and Rep. William J. Randall, Missouri Democrats said the GSA recommended a negotiated sale at the appraised price of $22,500.

The deal is subject to approval by Senate and House government operations committees.

House Votes Increase For Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, which said, "no, thanks," to a $10,000 pay raise in March, voted $7,500-a-year increases for members of Congress on Thursday in passing a big federal pay raise bill.

A 243-157 roll-call vote reversed the earlier action and sent to the Senate a bill that would boost salaries of 1.7 million federal employees by a total of $533.2 million.

It would mean about $325 a year more for letter carriers and postal clerks, and about $310 a year additional for the average government secretary. But the biggest boosts would be in the upper brackets.

Not only members of Congress, but Cabinet officials and their top aides and federal judges would get $7,500-a-year increases, and the top-rated civil service employees would get 22.5 per cent raises.

It would be the first raise for Congress and the Cabinet since 1955. Last March, with an election campaign approaching, the House decided 222-184 against raising salaries by $10,000.

With the more modest $7,500 increase, the new salaries would be $32,500 a year for Cabinet officers, $30,000 for members of the House and Senate, and a range of between $26,000 and $29,000 for deputy and undersecretaries and the heads of agencies.

The vice president, speaker of the House and chief justice of the United States would get $43,000 a year and the associate (Please turn to Page 4, col. 5)

Flood Area Takes Look Of War Zone

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Flood-torn Montana took on aspects of a zone of war Thursday as government and business leaders directed multimillion-dollar rebuilding projects and authorities searched for dead and missing.

As floodwaters receded, officials in various search centers reported at least 30 persons dead.

Many of the more than 35 persons listed as missing were believed to be dead. Authorities said some bodies may be buried under tons of silt and rock.

Gov. Tim Babcock, who made an aerial inspection of the stricken area, called it the worst thing that has ever happened to the state.

"We can't begin to estimate the damage," he said. "It will run into tens of millions of dollars. Sections of highway as long as 20 miles have been destroyed by floodwaters."

Highway crews already have created temporary roads of mud and rock and set up makeshift bridges.

Many small towns were cut off from food and medical supplies. Supply-laden U.S. Air Force planes, including C123 transports, landed on grass and gravel runways and even open stretches of highway.

In the tiny reservation community of Heart Butte, where a number of persons were reported injured, a nurse was in charge of medical treatments. She received instructions by short-wave radio from a physician.

Helicopters Replaced In S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Thundering along near the Cambodian border, 20 banana-shaped H21 helicopters flew into Communist Viet Cong territory Thursday on their final operation in South Viet Nam.

Slim, maneuverable UH1Bs—Hueys—will take over from the unwieldy H21s—long the work-horse helicopter in Viet Nam.

Two companies of American and Vietnamese special forces men penetrated a Viet Cong stronghold just a mile from Cambodia in Tay Ninh Province.

These same special forces units had been there last week in a scorched earth operation. They returned to give it what one American adviser called a spring cleaning.

As the first combat assault unit moved in, two Viet Cong guerrillas ran toward the border. They were mowed down.

Rapidly advancing troops collected medical equipment and Communist documents in thatched roof houses that survived a fire-bombing strike last week.

One objective was to explode bombs sighted last week but not destroyed. With that out of the way, the troops moved on 100 yards and found 100 homemade rifle barrels.

With mission accomplished and no casualties, the special forces flew back in midafternoon to their base two miles northeast of Saigon.

The American unit in this final H21 mission was the U.S. Army's 120th Aviation Co., which as the 57th Co., was the first helicopter outfit to arrive in Viet Nam. It arrived in December 1961.

The Vietnamese Defense Ministry reported that two American jet planes flying regular reconnaissance missions Wednesday Giang Province near the Gulf of Thailand were shot at by a Cambodian border post, but were not hit.

A spokesman said both planes were in Vietnamese air space.

Reservations About Philosophy

Eisenhower Is Not Out To Stop Goldwater's Drive

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower insists he is not out to stop front-running Sen. Barry Goldwater — or boost anyone else — in the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

But, without going into detail, he doesn't hide reservations about some aspects of Goldwater's conservative philosophy.

The 73-year-old former president says, however, he is plain disgusted by reports picturing him as a puppeteer, yanking strings in an effort to ditch the fast-moving Goldwater bandwagon. He is equally angry about reports that he sought to launch a boom for Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, and then scuttled Scranton's chances.

Eisenhower told The Associated Press his overriding interest is in an open GOP convention at San Francisco next month, and in a platform and ticket that would build the party up to its maximum strength.

He says the party will need all the power it can muster for what he sizes up as an uphill battle to defeat President Johnson in November.

Eisenhower wants to be in a position, as he puts it, to pick up the pieces after the convention, and help unite the party behind its nominee — whoever he is.

In all this, he says, his views have been consistent since he first expressed them 18 months ago.

Eisenhower, who met with AP reporters in his office here Wednesday and Thursday, sees no incompatibility between his call for a wide open convention and his insistence that he is not out to stop Goldwater.

Despite the Arizona senator's lopsided lead in convention delegate strength, Eisenhower does not think Goldwater has locked up the nomination.

The former president recalls he spoke for an open convention four years ago when his vice president, Richard M. Nixon, was the party's choice.

Then, as now, Eisenhower says, he viewed an open convention — with candidates espousing all shades of Republican philosophy — as the best way to stir the interest of the party and the nation.

If the convention's choice is a foregone conclusion, he asks, why bother to have a convention at all?

Like most Republicans, Eisenhower has his personal favorite for the nomination. But he is not saying who it is—although his conversation leaves the clear impression it is not Goldwater.

Eisenhower says there are many Republicans with whom he is more closely allied philosophically than with the Arizona senator.

So, what are you going to write about today?

The girl at the next desk and the coffee drinking boys at the soda fountain suggest we quit writing about local stuff and do something profound about Southeast Asia, unrest in Korea, the political thunder reverberating from Jefferson City today.

The only trouble with this hint is that it is predicated upon the word "profound" which means something intellectually deep that goes thoroughly and penetratingly into a subject matter.

Just as sure as we tried this, especially about politics, we would be accused of profound ignorance. There are others who have the facility of twisting the meaning of written words so as to place a wrong interpretation on the subject matter and leave the writer in a pickle, and a sour one at that. Later, then. There's plenty of time for profundity, maybe even some jocularity, about political talk and absurd rumors floating about.

Something disturbing on the local scene may not warrant profound comment, but does require attention of every driver of a motor vehicle in Sedalia. This relates to the speed limitation in various areas of the community. These are posted for 15 miles in school areas, 20 miles in business areas, 30 miles in residential areas, 35 miles on Broadway and 40 miles and 45 miles on sections of highways close to the city limits.

The names of many violators are appearing in the police court record for driving between 7 and 12 miles an hour above posted limits. Most of those fined are not deliberate speeders, they are merely inattentive to speed zone signs or they are simply unaware their vehicle is moving above limits. Seven to 12 miles doesn't seem too much.

Attention to city speed limitations is absolutely essential if drivers are to be secure from $10 fines.

More attention to the traffic regulations at home is good discipline, too, the practice of which with regularity may be rewarding when the family goes on a motor trip to and through other communities.

Ag Department Loans to Golf Courses

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Senator John J. Williams, R-Del., the relentless congressional crusader, is searching for new dragons to slay, once the Senate has disposed of Bobby Baker.

At the moment, the redoubtable Williams is looking with narrow eyes at Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman who, in the name of soil conservation, has bestowed more than $1 million of the taxpayers' hard cash on golf courses.

This is all perfectly legal. Congress itself passed the law which permits the Agriculture Department to offer low-interest loans to farmers and non-profit "associations" for water and land development.

Setting aside a rural tract for a golf course is considered proper soil conservation. Indeed Freeman has loaned more money for golf courses than for any other recreational, soil-saving purpose.

Up to the end of the 1963 fiscal year, the Agriculture Department had granted 17 recreational loans to associations. Of these, 13 went for golf courses.

The grand total invested in this pastoral pastime was $1,066,890, more than was advanced for all other recreational facilities combined. Yet the 13 golf courses have only 1500 members, presumably gentleman farmers, who will share in the benefits.

Smelling a political issue, Williams has sternly demanded the facts on the conversion of crop land to golf greens at the taxpayers' expense. He promised to keep the identities of the borrowers confidential.

Confidential List

Back came the information along with a pointed reminder of his promise: "We are enclosing the information you requested, including the names and locations of borrowers which you asked that we provide you for use in a confidential manner."

However, this column has taken no such oath of silence. Here are the golf courses which have been able to get farm loans:

Clifton Springs Club, Ontario County, N.Y., $275,000; Piney Point Golf Club, Stanley County, N.C., $260,000; Caroline Country Club, Caroline County, Md., $151,190; Duplin County Country Club, Duplin County, N.C.,

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH: The Dropout Redefined

"Dropout" is getting to be a bad word, an expletive as crushing as "teen-ager," its coinage debased by ill-usage. School dropouts, in this currency, are shiftless, prideless youngsters, perversely opposed to an education, probably of weak mentality, and either juvenile delinquents or naturally doomed to become so. It is heartening to see active measures being taken to correct that cruel delusion, as in a New York forum at which some 100 children gave their own views.

Boys and girls do not so much drop out of school as they are discouraged out by parents who don't care, intimidated out by racial discrimination, bored out by failure of teachers to rouse their interest, sometimes even pushed out by schools that don't want them either, the seminar showed. The problem of school dropouts will be dealt with productively, not by heaping anathema upon it, but by treating the ills of a whole society that make it inevitable.

Alger's Come-Uppance

Rep. Bruce Alger, R-Tex., who led the unruly mob that shoved Lyndon and Lady Bird Johnson around in Dallas during the 1960 campaign, is now getting his come-uppance.

He can't get the most routine favor out of LBJ's White House.

He tried to arrange a White House tour, for example, for two constituents. His office was told that the tours were filled for the dates he wanted, that there wouldn't be a vacancy before June 23.

After consulting the constituents, Alger's office called back to say that June 25 would be all right. Sorry, said the White House, the June 25 tour was filled too.

A few weeks ago, he asked the White House for visitor privileges for five constituents. His office was told sadly that all tours were filled. In desperation, Alger appealed to another congressman who, five minutes later, arranged the tours for Alger's constituents without difficulty.

LBJ Opens Presidential Campaign

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, far in advance of the political conventions, this week in effect opened his presidential campaign with a speech on American might.

It served three different purposes: It was a warning to the Communist world, a reassurance to allies, and a reply to Sen. Barry Goldwater who has been consistently critical of American defenses.

Johnson opened up just one day after Goldwater's victory in the California primary, pushed him far ahead of all other contenders for the Republican presidential nomination in July.

Johnson, whose own nomination by the Democrats in August is taken for granted, never mentioned the Arizona. But his words were a clear reply to Goldwater. The speech took in more than Goldwater.

It was so detailed Johnson's talk can be considered a basic reply to any attacks the Republican party may try to make when the campaign gets going.

In talks, Goldwater has made since the start of 1964 and most recently in a booklet — "Sen. Goldwater Speaks Out on the Issues" — the senator has attacked this country's defense set-up in general and its missiles in particular.

The Johnson administration wasted no time going after Goldwater when he began his attack last January with the statement that U.S. intercontinental ballistic missiles were "undependable."

He got a fast answer from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, whom Johnson has blessed consistently. McNamara called Goldwater "politically irresponsible" and his statement "damaging to national security."

Goldwater has attacked him ever since. But on the same day Goldwater made his statement, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said he is confident the United States has "just as good missiles as there are in the world."

Following are some examples of what Goldwater has said since January and of what Johnson said this week.

Goldwater, acknowledging the importance of missiles, complained this country is getting rid of its manned bombers and by the 1970s will be relying on missiles alone.

He said: "We cannot put our sole reliance on missile systems as against a mixed force—missiles, manned aircraft, and naval vessels of all types."

Johnson said this country has more than 1,000 fully armed ICBM and Polaris missiles (fired from submarines) ready for retaliation and he added: "The Soviet Union has far fewer and none ready to be launched beneath the seas."

"We have more than 1,100 strategic bombers, many of which are equipped with air-to-surface and decoy missiles to help them reach almost any target. The Soviet Union, we estimate, could with difficulty send less than one-third of this number over targets in the United States."

And Johnson made this sweeping statement: "In every phase of national strength America today is stronger than it has ever been before. It is stronger than any adversary or combination of adversaries. It is stronger than the combined might of all the nations in the history of the world, and I confidently predict that strength will continue to grow more rapidly than the might of all others."

Goldwater said, "We are lagging behind in weapons technology and in the development of new systems."

Johnson said, "In the past several years we have begun many important new weapons systems." He listed some of them.

Goldwater said "there are many types of warfare that can take place between the extremes of hot and cold. We must be ready for all of them."

Johnson said this country's strength is also increasing in its ability to fight less than all-out war. He rattled off these bits of information, some of which may have surprised the Communists:

Increase in combat-ready divisions, in aircraft to support them, in the number of tactical nuclear warheads in Europe, in the ability to airlift troops, in the development of new weapons for "deterrence and defense," and huge increase in the size of forces being trained to fight internal subversion, including guerrilla warfare.

The Mature Parent

On Mothering Infant

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: It makes my husband very angry if I pick up my three-months old baby when he cries. This is because his mother has told him that the baby should be left to cry it out and that I am spoiling him to pick him up. I am doing it anyway because the pediatrician told me I should. But my husband doesn't speak to me after I have done it. Perhaps he will believe you if you write in the paper that it is right to pick up a baby when he cries.

ANSWER: I doubt it. But for what it's worth, it is, of course, my view that we should do everything we can to relieve babies of discomfort, fear and loneliness just as we feed them to relieve them of hunger.

However, it is not easy to comfort a baby if our comforting actor must be taken against such resistance as you are getting from your husband and mother-in-law. Such antagonism from two people from whom we have a right to expect tenderness for the baby and our new motherhood could quite easily hurt and frighten us so that our comforting capacity would suffer.

Our attention to the baby would get all mixed up with the knowledge that its father was going to punish us for giving the attention by refusing to speak to us.

Under such circumstances the value of our attention to the baby is questionable. A very strong-minded girl might manage to make her comfort wholehearted and real in your situation, but all of us are not strong-minded. If picking up the baby when your husband and his mother are around involves too much strain, discomfort and sadness for you, let it be that way for now — and cuddle the baby when they are not around. Make it up to him when you are alone together.

I am not suggesting that you indulge your husband and mother-in-law because I admire their views on the treatment of babies or of young mothers. I am suggesting it because you are not now in a position to take a fine, heroic stand on your right to mother your baby as you and his doctor want him mothered—and take whatever consequences there are.

There are times when we are exceedingly smart to fight people back but there are other times when it is stupid to—as when our new baby needs all the nourishing strength we can bring to him. This temporary giving-in won't be so difficult for you if you choose to do it yourself instead of regarding it as imposed on you. You have quite enough loneliness and hurt to handle right now without trying to find immediate solutions to the problem of your husband's dependence on his mother.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Most Doctors Believe Cigarettes Are Harmful

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.,
Newspaper Enterprise Association

In the midst of all the furor about the harmful effects of smoking, it is of interest to see how the medical profession as a whole feels about this subject. "Modern Medicine" conducted a survey of over 60,000 physicians. Of these 79.4 per cent had smoked at one time or another, but many had given it up, so that less than half still smoke. When asked whether they believe cigarette smoking is a health hazard, however, 94.8 per cent answered yes.

Those who advised all of their patients to quit smoking before it was too late comprised 53.6 per cent. Most of the others insisted that their patients stop smoking when the patients showed signs of disease in the heart, blood vessels or lungs or had peptic ulcers.

Reports such as that of Dr. E. J. Salber at Harvard, which shows that teen-agers who smoke generally have a lower intelligence quotient than nonsmokers, have received comparatively little publicity. The same report showed that boys who smoke have more trouble with their parents, the school authorities and the law than the nonsmokers.

One block is the fact that tobacco, being officially defined as neither a food or a drug, does not come within the authority of the Food and Drug Administration. If it did, it would never have gotten on the open market.

Meanwhile, the evidence of a link between smoking and lung cancer continues to pile up. This has nothing to do with the nicotine in the tobacco, acknowledged by all pharmacologists to be a powerful poison. It is due rather to a mixture of tars and phenols and other substances long known to favor the production of cancer. Furthermore, other chemicals in cigarette smoke reinforce the cancer-producing effect of some of these, especially urethane.

Smoking has also been shown to speed up the changes in lung tissue associated with aging, so that after 15 years of smoking the lung tissues will have aged 20 years.

Many plans have been advanced to help smokers to kick the habit. One method consists of substituting another activity such as chewing gum. This is most effective when cigarettes are used principally to relieve boredom. Another method, especially applicable to those who might be described as jittery smokers, is a short course of tranquilizing drugs as a temporary crutch.

Another drug that has long been used to help break the habit, lobeline, has been put out in lozenge form (Nikoban). Although some observers report good results with this drug, others say that a strong motivation to quit smoking without the use of lobeline will achieve better results than a weak motivation plus lobeline.

A team composed of a doctor (J. W. McFarland) and a minister (E. J. Folkenberg) have written a book entitled "How to Stop Smoking in Five Days," claiming success in 75 per cent of those who use their method.

Clean During Phone Chat

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — To take the drudgery out of cleaning and straightening dresser drawers, I do them while talking over the telephone. Just put the drawer that needs attention in a location convenient to the telephone. While engaged in a prolonged conversation you can be sorting, eliminating and rearranging. When the talk is over you have a household chore completed with very little effort and great satisfaction. This is work done in a painless sort of way.—MRS. D. T. J.

DEAR POLLY—I get so many good hints from the column so I hope you and the girls will like mine. I like to crochet and often use crossword puzzles for patterns. When doing filet crochet made of spaces and blocks (open and solid mesh) for the pattern, I merely adapt a puzzle that has the dark blocks arranged in an interesting design. They are the solid crochet and the white ones, where letters are to be filled in, are the open squares.—MRS. A. R. H.

DEAR POLLY — To keep my husband's breakfast warm and my brain cool while waiting for him to make it to the breakfast table, I place his plate on top of his cup of hot tea, coffee or chocolate, place a lid on the plate and this way the drink and plate stay warm and he can dawdle over shaving.—MRS. D. S.

DEAR POLLY — You can make perfect identical pleats in a skirt with the aid of a dinner fork. Place three times of the fork under the edge of the fabric and one over it. Turn fabric clockwise with the fork. Pull out the fork and pin pleat in place. Repeat until the desired number of pleats are made.—MRS. J. A. E.

DEAR POLLY — I find the best time for cleaning dresser drawers in a child's room is a day when that child must stay in bed. He is entertained (I give him the things to be discarded) and mother is handy for the attention a sick child needs.—I. E. K.

BERRY'S WORLD

"Well, there goes my chance for a pari!"

MoPac Shops Overhaul Is Completed

CONSOLIDATED — Many of the Missouri Pacific Shops operations in Sedalia have been concentrated under the roof of this remodeled building, the Coach Repair Building, in a line-wide effort by MoPac to "Reshape their plant to cope with modern competitive conditions and to eliminate wasteful labor and production costs." In this building are the shop offices, sign shop, seat repair shop, truck shop, upholstery shop, mill, cabinet shop, tin shop, paint booth, and an assembly-line type of repair and rebuilding area for passenger cars.

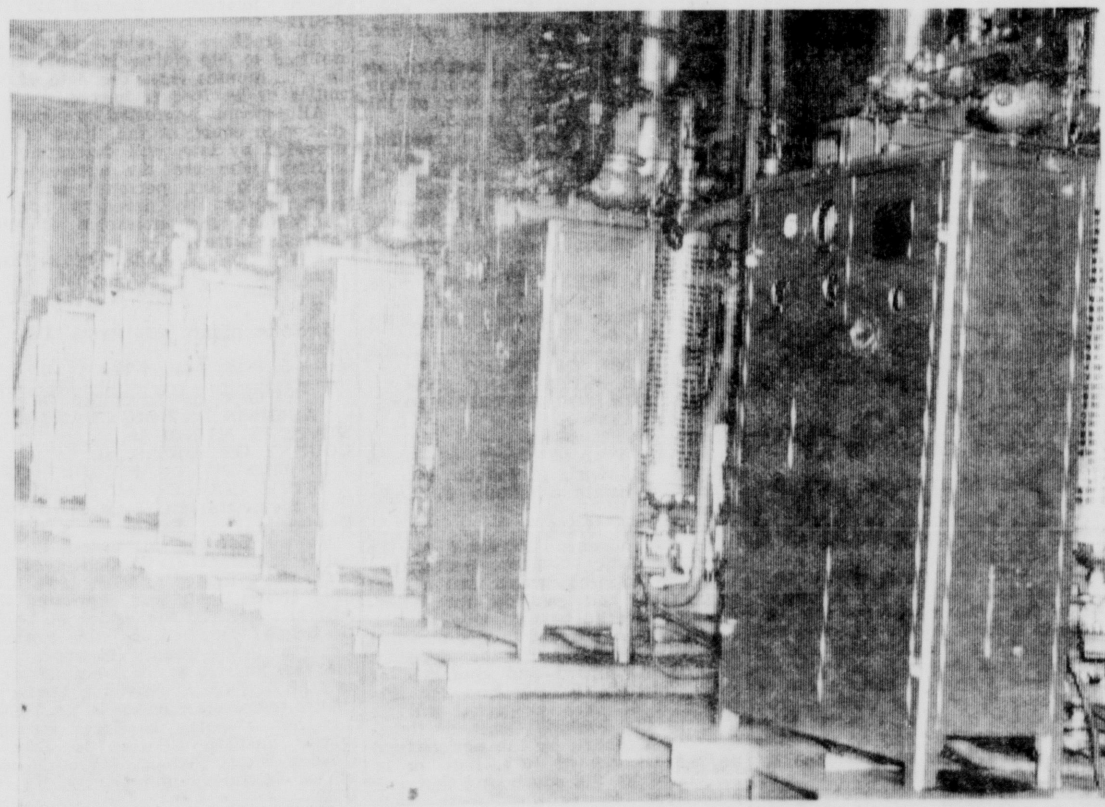

All of the facilities are out in the open, with working conditions made more pleasant with the addition of new rest rooms, a complete light green paint job and a new roof that allows plenty of light to filter through about two blocks of colored plastic windows. Photo was taken from the south end of the building. Foreground is the truck shop portion of the building.

(Democrat-Capital photos).

SAND BLAST BUILDING — This new sand blasting building consolidates all of the shop sand blasting in one area. Previously, sand blasting was done in each separate department as needed. The car on the right contains sand, which is fed to the blasting machine. Inside the building is a car being blasted clean before repair or renovation work is started. Sand can be recovered inside the building, cleaned and re-used.

STEAM IN SECONDS — These six gas-fired generators in the new "power house" can produce steam to be used throughout the plant in a matter of seconds. The generator on the right was timed and steam pressure was obtained in 24 seconds from starting. Formerly, steam was obtained by use of oil-fired boilers.

POWER HOUSE — This small new building takes the place of the huge old power house with its oil-fired boilers used to produce steam for the shops area. The six steam generators indicated by the stacks get fuel from a six-inch gas main recently installed.

On the left is a storage tank for oil that would be used to produce steam for heating the plant "in case of a gas failure." In the background is the new roof of the coach building, which was installed after the upper story was removed.

STRIPPED — This is the interior of one of the sleeping cars that have been received at the MoPac shops after workmen have completed the stripping process. The car will be rebuilt into a coach on the shop assembly line.

REMODELING — This is the interior of a former sleeping car being remodeled into a coach. After the car was stripped, the interior was completely rebuilt. Above, the rebuilding operation is almost complete. The tile flooring has been installed on the left half of the floor, the interior walls have been installed, and the shop upholstery and seat repair installations will furnish the seats. When it rolls onto the line the rebuilt car will be as good as new.

New Look At Local Facility

By Ralph Jones

"Given a fair opportunity to compete for traffic, to reshape their plant and to cope with modern competitive conditions, and to eliminate wasteful labor costs, railroads can generate the funds necessary to finance huge annual outlays," says J. Elmer Monroe, Bureau of Economics, Association of American Railroads.

Monroe, in a review of railroad operations during 1963, was referring to funds and financial outlays that made it possible for the nation's railroads to embark on a billion-dollar capital improvement program to improve, consolidate, update and revamp their operations to meet modern conditions.

D. B. Jenks, president of Missouri Pacific, reports an increase in net income, but pointed out that the increase did not, and could not, have come from a modest increase in traffic. Rather, Jenks reported, it is largely due to federal income tax credits resulting from new depreciation guidelines issued by the Treasury Department in 1962.

"These guidelines were intended to permit the railroads to modernize their plants by purchasing more new equipment and making other improvements, and to stimulate the national economy. In other words," Jenks said, "this money was made available through tax credits and intended for further use in improving our company. That is just what we are doing."

The results of this consolidation and improvement program have been visible to a great extent in and around MoPac's Sedalia shops for some time, but it was only this week that MoPac officials released the full story complete with whys and wherefores about what has been going on at the shops in the past two years.

Shortly after Mr. Jenks' second visit to Sedalia visible change's began to take place at the shops. Some of the buildings, including the shop offices, were leased to the people connected with the Minuteman Missile project in this area. Some of the buildings were torn down. A power line was run into the shops area. Some tracks were removed. Then a six-inch gas main was run into the property.

The shops area two years ago contained some 90 acres of land. With the consolidation, about 50 per cent of this area was found to be "deadwood" and the working shops area began to concentrate in the eastern half of the tract.

Four acres of the northeast corner were sold to the DeLong Co., metal fabricators. Three buildings in this tract are being modernized, as the DeLong Co. prepares to open operations.

In the western half of the area, a few buildings remain, but bare ground shows where many buildings stood two years ago. The smoke of burning railroad ties marks the spot where some 16,000 feet of tracks, no longer useful in the shops' operation, have been removed.

J. S. Simon, shop superintendent, said that some 1,100 tons of old machines and tools have been scrapped, and replaced by newer tools better adapted to the particular types of work now being done in the consolidated shops.

SUPERINTENDENT — James S. Simon, Shops Superintendent, keeps in touch with foremen in all departments by two-way radio. This modern communication system between departments saves time and money for the company, while insuring a smooth-running operation.

The office and a major portion of the shops operations have been moved to the old machine shop building, which has undergone a renovation itself. The third story has been removed, and a long strip of colored windows on each side of the upper story provide more light for workers.

The old building, now the coach shop, among other things, has been repainted, using paint purchased locally, in line with the railroad president's policy of making local purchases whenever possible all along the line.

This building houses the sign shop, seat repair shop, upholstery shop, wood mill, cabinet shop, tin shop, door shop, truck shop, and 18 tracks containing passenger cars undergoing stripping, general repairs, painting and testing.

In other buildings are the caboose and work car, electric shop, machine shops, signal repair shops and the material storage building.

All of the new or consolidated operations have more room now, and are arranged on an assembly-line basis for maximum production with a minimum of supervision.

A major change-over was indicated when the electric power and gas lines were installed. Formerly, the shops used oil for heat and to manufacture electric power. Now, electricity and gas are purchased locally, and pass through a central "power house" where steam is generated, and air compressors operate to feed air to the entire shop. Oil is used for stand-by fuel, for emergency use in case of gas failure.

A new sand-blast building has been built just east of the coach building, to blast and clean metal parts of machinery before painting. Entire cars may enter the building for complete sanding. The sand is fed from a car on a siding that runs alongside the building. If the used sand is not too dirty or oily, it is re-used. Formerly sand blasting was done by the individual departments as needed.

The signal rebuilding shop is not new, but it is a good example of how the railroad refuses to throw anything away if it can be salvaged at a saving. The thousands of delicate component parts of signal relays, electric remote signal equipment, flasher light control equipment and all of the thousands of other pieces of signal gear in use throughout the system are sent to Sedalia for rehabilitation.

In the coach shop it is evident that the railroad keeps up a good housekeeping program. Here, surplus Pullman cars are converted into passenger coaches. Some of the old-style passenger cars are being converted to special work equipment. In short, if an old car can be rebuilt, or converted to some useful purpose, it goes to the Sedalia shops for rebuilding.

The modern sign shop located within the coach shop produces all of the assorted signs used on the MoPac and Texas & Pacific system. It specializes in metal reflector-type signs, insignia and numerals, in color, too. The basic material comes in rolls, and through a silk screen process the shop can produce the company's own signs rapidly and economically.

Company emblems are silk-screened in the familiar red and white colors on a reflectorized base, then applied directly to the outside surfaces of locomotives and other equipment. An adhesive backing permits the sign to be applied to wood or metal, eliminating the old water-decal process or spray painting with stencils.

SIGN SHOP — This photo illustrates the effectiveness of the reflective signs produced in the new sign shop. Against the camera flash the signs reflect an intensity of light comparable to the bright sunlight outside of the building. The shop produces all types of reflective signs, emblems and numerals for the Missouri Pacific and Texas & Pacific railroads. The signs do away with spray stencils, hand-painting signs and re-painting weathered signs. The new signs are durable and are particularly effective against headlights at night.

Besides scaling down the proposed congressional increase from $10,000 to $7,500, the bill makes them effective next January instead of upon enactment, as in the previous bill. No other salaries over $22,000 would be either, but postal workers and career employees would get their increases in their first paycheck after enactment.

The House defeated all amendments that would have altered the pay scales in the bill but it adopted one that would eliminate the necessity for Congress voting on its own future pay increases.

Offered by Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., it would tie congressional and top executive salaries to the highest civil service grade and provide that any raises in that top grade would automatically raise congressional and executive salaries by a similar percentage.

Police Reports

A 15-year-old boy, said to have been the driver of an automobile which went through a fence at 24th and Ohio, when questioned about the incident before his father, agreed to return to the scene in the next few days and make the necessary repairs to the fence. The accident occurred late Tuesday night.

The boy, it was reported, claimed to be under parole from a boy's institution in Arizona. The case was turned over to Cecil Glenn, juvenile officer, who said the boy agreed to fix the fence.

According to reports the car was being followed by a police car with Officer Clyde Nicewarner, who had a red light on trying to stop the vehicle, but he was considerable distance back. No sooner had the car gone through the fence than the juveniles in the car scattered and eluded the officer. The car had gone considerable distance into a field, away from the roadway, and Nicewarner stopped on the road. They disappeared before he could get down in the field where the car stopped.

The boy and several other juveniles were "rounded up" Wednesday and questioned by the police and Glenn about the incident.

F. D. Johnson, brought a brown billfold to police station Thursday. Identification available in the billfold indicated that it was the property of Johnny Lee Fultz, Springfield.

Mrs. Wealthy Cole, 2001 South Kentucky, reported to police Thursday the theft of a purse containing approximately $30 in traveler's checks and important papers. The purse was taken out of a cabinet in the kitchen.

Joe Keightley, 640 East 11th, reported to police Thursday that a manifold and carburetor from a 1957 Chevrolet had been stolen from his garage sometime in the last several days.

A 12-year-old boy, Ralph Burgess, 1305 East Ninth, was reported to Sedalia Police and the Pettis County Sheriff's office as missing late Thursday. At press time his whereabouts had not been ascertained.

When last seen, the boy was wearing a red pullover shirt, blue jeans and black tennis shoes. He has brown hair and eyes and is of a stocky build.

It was indicated that the youth had an older sister in St. Louis and that he might possibly have left Sedalia for that area.
